From,
Charles W. Reade Esqr.
Collector of South Arcot

To, The Assistant to the Accountant General
Madras;

Sir,

In retransmitting the Register of application for Kistna Row and the Memo which accompanied it I have the honor to state that the date of the first entertainment of this individual in the public service is 4th January 1839 as intered in the application, and this is proved by the office copy of the order of appointment given to the applicant which is in record. There can be no doubt therefore about this point, and it is evident that the date of entertainment was wrongly entered as 4th November 1838 in the list of establishments for 1839 which mistake was continued in the Establishment lists of the subsequent years till 1851.

Item No. 39.

Item No. 40

2 As regards this query it is observed that Kistna Row was transferred from Trinamallai to Trikalore from 1st April 1847, but through oversight his name was omitted in the Annual Return of that year, while that of another Gomasta of the same name who was in Trikalore Taluq and was transferred in March 1847 to the Huzur to be Assistant Vernacular Record Keeper as per order

dated dated 6th March 1847 No. 131 was wrongly retained in Trikalore Taluq, and thus in lieu of the applicants name the former name appeared in the lists of Huzur and Trikalore Taluq, while properly the applicants name should have appeared in Trikalore Taluq with the date of entertainment altered & that of the other Gomastah in the Huzur list. This applicant having been in Trinamallai till 1847 his name appears in the lists of that Taluq for the previous years. In the Establishment list for 1847 the applicants name was altogether omitted which is a mistake and nothing else, and from 1848 his name appeared appeared correctly in Trikaloor

3 The omission pointed out Item No 41. has been supplied.

I have the honor to be
