Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department, 2nd December 1870.

Read the following papers :—

From the Collector of Sea Customs, dated 27th September 1870, No. 917.
„ Examiner of Claims, „ 13th October 1870, No. 1182.

ORDER THEREON, 2nd December 1870, No. 665.

Gaja Narainsawmy Naidoo entered the service of Government as Conicopoly in the Sea Customs' Office on the 11th April 1842, and served in qualifying grades till the 28th February 1850. From 1st March 1850 till 20th June 1870, he was employed in the Chamber of Commerce in compiling the monthly trade statements; and, of this period, amounting to twenty years, three months, and twenty days, fifteen years, nine months, and twenty-three days are claimed for pension.

2. In 1850, it was proposed to commence printing the trade statements monthly, and the Chamber of Commerce agreed to pay Rupees 50 per mensem for the salary of two compiling clerks, in return for which they were to receive twenty-five copies, Government taking thirty at Rupees 1-4-0. The arrangement was sanctioned for twelve months in G. O., 21st March 1850, No. 18. The experiment having proved successful, the sanction was extended for a further period of three years from 1st April 1850 (G. O., 2nd October 1851, No. 36). In 1854, it was proposed that the publication of the statements should be made permanent on the existing footing, with the addition that the two clerks employed should be considered part of the establishment of the Collector of Sea Customs, under whose orders the statements [illegible] prepared, and should count their service for pension, notwithstanding that [illegible] were met from the fund composed of the payment made by the Chamber of Commerce and the proceeds of the copies taken by Government. The Government approved these proposals in G. O., 29th August 1854, No. 356, but with prospective effect. The applicant's service from the date of this Order is claimed for pension. He was declared unfit for service on the 21st June 1870, and his service for pension amounts to twenty-three years, eight months, and twelve days. From the Collector's letter, it appears that the salary of the clerks is always drawn from the Chamber of Commerce on a bill presented by the Collector of Sea Customs.

3. Subject to the confirmation of G. O., 29th August 1854, No. 356, by the Government of India, the Governor in Council is pleased to grant, under Clause II., Section 6, of the revised Pension Rules, to Gaja Narainsawmy Naidoo, a monthly pension of one-third of his pay during the last five years of service, or Rupees 8-4-0, with effect from the 21st June 1870.

I, C. J. Rogers Surgeon-Major and Acting Surgeon First District, do hereby certify that I have carefully examined G. Narainsawmy Naidoo clerk in the establishment of the Collector of Sea Customs; that his age is, by his own statement 62 years, and by appearance about 62, and that I find him to be unfit for further service, from old age and infirmity, not, in my opinion, attributable to intemperance, or other irregular habits
