GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following papers:—

From the Assistant to the Accountant-General, dated 15th August 1870.

Abstract.—Submitting an application for gratuity on behalf of Henry Thomas Fonsworth, late Clerk in the Accountant-General's Office.

From Mr. H. B. FONSWORTH, late Clerk in the Accountant-General's Office, Madras, to the Deputy Accountant-General, Madras, dated Bombay, 1st August 1870, No. 93.

With reference to my letter, dated 27th May 1870, resigning my appointment in the Treasury Account Department of the Accountant-General's Office, Madras, I beg most respectfully to say that I was compelled to take this step in consequence of my health being so bad as to preclude any hope of my ever being able to return to my duty, and to my not being eligible to any further leave under the rules except without pay.

2. It did not occur to me when writing that letter that I should have assigned these reasons and also produced a medical certificate so as to admit of an application being made to Government on my behalf for such gratuity as will be admissible to me under the rules. I beg, however, now to enclose such a certificate, and respectfully request that you will be so good as to submit my case for the favorable consideration of Government.

Enclosure.

Certificate No. 35.

We do hereby certify on honor, according to the best of our professional judgment, after careful examination, that we consider the case of Mr. H. T. Fonsworth, Clerk in the Accountant-General's Office, Madras, to be of such a nature as to render him unfit for further service, and that such unfitness has not been induced by irregular or intemperate habits.
