+ herewith returned

From the Pay abstracts I find that Sundram Pillai held an acting appointment of Rupees 15 from 6th January to 21st March 1864. He remained without employ for some time but was subsequently appointed on 1st May 1865 and continued up to 4th May 1869. His name therefore does not appear in his service Register & draw out his application in the prescribed form.

in the annual returns for 1864/65.

The appointment had by this individual was shown in the Pay abstract &ca as 2d Clerk Tirumalavasel Sea Customs but the Sub Collector having placed him in charge of the port of Kottaipatam he came to be called Assistant Superintendent of that Port and his appointment was therefore entered as such in the Register through an oversight.
