I would grant the pension RJ

J. D. S

This should go also to Mr Arbuthnot - with refce to his note on the other case.

Reference is requested to the memo for orders, on which the G.O. referred to was based. Strictly, that order went on the ground of a magisterial conviction having taken place. The nature of the "violation of duty" in the present case cannot be ascertained.

HA

Head Constable Moothayalu Nayadu to whose claim for pension the foregoing papers relate having been struck off the strength of the Madras Town police for violation of duty must be held to have been dismissed for misconduct and to forfeit his previous service on the principle laid down in G.O. No. 349 dated 15th October 1869 Pension Dept.

2. He is therefore eligible only to a gratuity of nine months' pay or Rupees (126) one hundred and twenty six for his subsequent service in the North Arcot Police force, amounting to 9 y. 8 m. 14 d.
