Nellore Collectors Office
25th November 1870

From

G. Vans Agnew Esquire
Collector of Nellore.

To

H. L. Stokes Esquire
Under Secretary to Government
Pension Department.

Sir,

With reference to Paragraph 2 of the Government order dated 31st October 1870, N^o 586, I have the honor to state that the cases referred to in Paragraph 7 of Mr. Master's letter, as under correspondence with the Tahsildars are included in the 62 cases mentioned as undisposed of.

2. Of these on inquiry eight have for various reasons been found inadmissible. The number to be disposed of is therefore reduced to 54, and inquiry will probably show some more of these applications to be similarly inadmissible.

I have

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant.
