ORDER THEREON, 17th December 1870, No. 711.

Pillalamani Pullayya has served altogether for thirty-three years, one month and nineteen days, but of this period, only seven years, three months and four days (from 30th September 1862) was on an establishment formally sanctioned as a permanency, viz., Mr. Pelly's scale. Prior to the introduction of this scale he was employed in estates for twenty-five years, eleven months and fifteen days. For eleven years, two months and ten days, his service was in estates under management on account of the proprietors; but from 1st January 1847 till 24th August 1857 (ten years, seven months and twenty-four days, of which, two years, nine months and twenty-four days was passed on salaries above 10 Rupees) the estates in which he was employed had reverted to Government. He was subsequently employed for eleven months and sixteen days in an estate managed under orders of a Court, and for four years, one month and twenty-two days, till 30th September 1862, in the Nandigama Taluq, which appears to have belonged to Government. However this may be, if his service from 1st January 1847 till 24th August 1857 is admitted as service under Government, he will be entitled to count these two subsequent periods; and his service for pension will amount to fifteen years, three months and four days, sufficient to entitle him to a one-third pension.

2. The Collector, in his letter of the 16th September 1870, No. 4209, states that, from the date of the reversion of each estate to Government, the salaries of the establishments were charged to Government under the head of Extra Establishments on estimates annually passed, pending the sanction of Government for a revised Moyan Zabita for the whole district.

3. The Government are of opinion that service rendered under the above circumstances should count for pension. The formal revision of the establishments was deferred for the convenience and in the interests of Government; and the servants, of whom, it is observed, there are a great many in the Kistna District, should not suffer on this account.

4. Accordingly, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Pillalamani Pullayya, late Gumastah of Nandigama Taluq, a one-third pension of Rupees (5) five per mensem, with effect from the 5th February 1870.

Sir, I have the honor to afford the following explanation on Item 18259 in your letter dated 6th June 1870 herewith returned, together with the register of an application for superannuation Pension on behalf of Vallalammay Pallaya, late revenue Gumaasta of Mandigama Taluk.

2. The name of the applicant from 31st December 1838 to 20th January 1843 does not appear in the annual returns of the late Maulipatam District, rendered to the late British Auditor, because the Palunzy Taluk belonging to Madavarole Zamindar was, during the above period, under the temporary management of the Collector for arrears of Peshkash. The Peshkash and Gumaasta referred to by you were Sayer servants of Palunzy Taluk. The second period from 25th August 1857 to 9th August 1858 is the time of service rendered by the applicant to Mylavaram Estate, which was under attachment for a long time in pursuance of the Court's Order which was issued at the instance of the creditors of Mylavaram Zamindar. Hence the omission of this Item in the Annual Returns of Public servants.

estates in which he was employed had reverted to Govt. He was subsequently employed for 11m. 16d in an estate managed under orders of a court, and for 1y. 1m 22d till 30th Sep^r 1862, in the Kandigania Saluk, which appears to have belonged to Government. However this may be, if his service from 1st January 1847 till 26th Aug^t 1857 is admitted as service under Govt, he will be entitled to count these two subsequent periods; and his service for pension will amount to 15y. 3m. 4d, sufficient to entitle him.

to a one-third pension

From the date of the reversion of each estate to Govt the salaries of the establishments

According to the Collector in his letter of the 16th Sep 1870 stating that Establishments were charged to Govt, under the head of extra establishments on estimates annually passed, pending the sanction of Government for a revised Moyen Zabita for the whole district.

The question is whether employment under these circumstances is to be considered temporary or not. The definite sanction of the Moyen Zabita which was called for so far back as 1853, appears to have been deferred for the convenience of Govt. and it seems somewhat hard that, for the want of formal sanction, servants who otherwise are eligible for pension should be deprived of it. - Mr Boswell says that that many of the servants in the district were thus paid, pending the introduction of the revised scale of establishment.

5. There can be no question that the establishments were regarded at the time as temporary; and this perhaps, not the time for which they lasted, is the proper criterion.
6. Orders are requested whether the service should be admitted or not; and if admitted whether the confirmation of the Govt of India should be asked.

He was subsequently employed for 11 m. 16 d. in an estate managed under orders of a Court, and for 4 y. 1 m. 22 d. till 30th September 1862, in the Andigama Saluk, which appears to have belonged to Government. 2. The Collector, in his letter of the 16th September 1870

No 4209 states that, from the date of the reversion of each estate to Government, the salaries of the establishments were charged to Govt. under the head of extra establishments on estimates annually passed, pending the sanction of Government for a revised Moyeu Zabita for the whole district.

3. The Government are of opinion that service rendered under the above circumstances should count for pension. The formal revision of the establishments was deferred for the convenience and in the interests of Government; and the servants, of whom, it is observed, there are a great many ^{in the Krishna District} should not suffer ^{on this account}.
