Translation of an order No. 18 issued to P. Ramadoss Tasildar of Mandagana Taluk dated 27: January 1857.

Received your order No. 11 dated 17: instant you have reported among other things that Adapa Venkateshdy Revenue peon of the Taluk twice obtained sick leave of absence in November and December last and failed to attend to duty though the two instalments of the leave expired by the 10: of this month; and that he never submitted a report on the subject and that the name of his substitute may be ordered to be entered in the pay abstract.

The aforesaid peon Venkateshdy who obtained leave at two times, not only failed to attend to duty the 17 days had expired after the prescribed time but also it appears failed to submit a report on the subject.

Therefore he is dismissed from this date and one Caga Viraswamy is appointed in his place. You will therefore have his name entered in the Baravard.

You will also understand that the full pay from the date of expiration of the leave upto the 26: of this month should be paid to the substitute who acted for Venkateshdy during his absence.

Ellore Taluk

No. 42 Krishna District
Collector's Office
Masulipatam.
27 July 1869.

From, J. A. C. Roswell Esq.
Officiating Collector.

To, The Examiner of Claims in the Accountant General's Office, Fort Saint George.

Sir,
With reference to your letter dated 4th May 1869, I have the honor to submit my explanation.
No. 28. Translations of the orders of the Collector under which A. Venkata Rao & C. Shaik & Mira were dismissed are herewith sent.

The Sirdar of Repalli Taluk stated that the number and date of the order under which C. Shaik & Mira was reinstated were entered in the Pay Abstract of September 1855 but that the original order itself was destroyed with the useless records.

The order of the reinstatement of A. Ven-kata Rao as an Abkarny Dron of Ellore Taluk was 1869 Oct.

From Mr. C. Roswell Collector
of Krishna District
To the Examiner of Claims in the Accountant General's Office

was amongst the records of that Taluk which were transferred to the Collector of the Godaverry District in 1860. Copy of this cannot therefore be furnished from this Office, but I have therefore requested the Collector of that District to forward me with the document which I shall forward to you as soon as received.

No. 39. A. Venkataroddy was dismissed the service on the 27th January 1857 as he failed to return to duty within the time of his leave.
He stated that he was then suffering from the wounds inflicted on him by a band of savage robbers who attacked the Taluk of Suryat Mandajana & that in the conflict he lost his middle finger. Under these circumstances he was recommended for a gratuity of Rupees 24. His dismissal was not shown in the list recommending him for gratuity because no column was provided in the list then in use for "Dismissal" and consequently no enquiry seems to have been made as to the fact of the dismissal.

No. 40.

No. 40. The application of the late Military Police Constable C. Shank. Mirad of Masulipatam Fort for a gratuity of Rupees 30 appears to have been recommended in 1863 upon a report received from the Bunder Tashildar stating that his services extended to years 15-2-8, but no enquiry appears to have been instituted regarding his dismissal in reference to the Office records which were subsequently lost in the cyclone of 1864. When the Register of application for Compassionate allowance under reference was being prepared a strict enquiry was instituted regarding the services of the applicant when the fact of his dismissal having been elicited from a report by the Repally Tashildar, the same was accordingly shown in the Register of Compassionate allowance in question.
His dismissal was not shown in the gratuity list for the same reason given for

for the former number No. 41. This cannot be explained as all the records up to 1855 were transferred in 1857 to the Postal Department which may probably be able to furnish the required information.

No. 42. The original Affidavit was already sent with the Register of application on the 2^d February 1869.
I am now unable to furnish you with another as no copy has been kept in this office & the applicant's husband is reported to have died on the 5th February 1869. His son named Palaramprasad presented a petition on the 29th ult. in praying that the arrears of the Compassionate allowance due to his deceased father might be paid to him.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your Most Obedient Servant.

Altho: the services of C. Shastri Chatterjee late a Military Police Peon on the Establishment of the Collector of His Highness's Court have been verified partly from the records of the Collectors Office and partly supported by affidavit, he is not eligible to a compassionate Allowance of Rupees 2-8-0 a month from 1st December 1863 for his service of years 6-3-17 next from 14th December 1855 to 28th February 1862 as he was dismissed the service on the 2d January 1852, in consequence of having taken a bribe under pretence of gift. Vide Collectors remark given in the B side of the Register, and his explanation in item c. No. 10 of his letter dated 29th July 1869 p. 14.

The applicant's service from 1st October 1857 is excluded from the total period of his service, because he does not appear from the Statement of service to have been reinstated in his post of Police Peon of Rasputty Taluk on a salary of Rs 5 per mensem on the 14th September 1857 but to have been appointed as a Peon on a post of the Rasputty Taluk on a salary of Rupees 4, after a period of years 3-8-13 from the date of his dismissal.

A gratuity of Rupees 30 was paid to the applicant under the order of Government dated 18th April 1863 A.D. 1857 in consequence of the break in his service not having been reported to the British Government. Under the circumstances now brought to notice he was eligible at that time to a gratuity of only Rupees 15.
