I C. J. Rogers Surgeon Major Adj. Surgeon 1st District, do hereby certify that I have carefully examined A Teagaroy Moodelly, Clerk in the Government Office, Public Dept. Madras. That his age is, by his own statement 40 years, and by appearance about the same; and that I find him to be unfit for further service, from old age and infirmity, not, in my opinion, attributable to intemperance, or other irregular habits.

Surgeon Major
Adj. Surgeon 1st District

Madras
January 1870

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras

Honored Sir

I most respectfully beg leave to bring to your kind notice that I have entered in the Public Department in May 1850 as Substitute writer for my elder brother Anasawmy Moodallu who was then severely troubled with Paralysis.
He afterwards finding his illness quite irrecoverable addressed the then Chief Secretary Richard Chis Esguire in November 1850 to let me permanently in his room. That gentleman was accordingly pleased to order the then Manager William H. Smith to confirm me in the appointment. Instead of entering my name in the Acquittance Roll and Pay Abstract the said manager ordered me to my misfortune to continue to sign my brother's name Anasawmy mood. This fault was found in April 1851, and was enquired into by the then Chief Secretary Sir H. C. Montgomery who ordered me to forfeit my former service of 20 years, and to reckon it from 1851 which now amounts to about 19 years. During this long period of 39 years service I have been as ~~Proceedings~~ ^{Industrious}, ^{Diary of Receipts}, and latterly as Circulation Writer, which responsible duties I have always conducted to the perfect satisfaction of my immediate employers, and especially to your honor ever since you assumed charge of the office.

Being myself of 70 years old and being quite infirm and subject at present to rheumatic complaints, I have obtained leave of absence for six months from your honor, which will expire in January 1870.
The ailment with which I am troubled is so severe that I am not even able to move from my bed, consequently I have humbly presumed to represent the foregoing my distressed circumstances in detail to your honor and solicit your most humane will be graciously pleased to take the above into your favorable consideration and kindly extend your munificence by granting me

Superannuation Pension and to ³protect my large family by conferring my situation to my Nephew who holds an appointment in the Accountant General's Office British Burmah on a salary of Rs. 750 per mensem and now in Madras on leave who will be well qualified for the place, as will be found from the Certificates granted to him by ^{his} employers at Rangoon (copies of which I beg to enclose herewith). The similar indulgence was granted to an old writer of Verasawmy Naidoo who was pensioned in October last. Your kind compliance with this my humble request will relieve me from my great distress, and lay me under an everlasting obligation.

I beg to remain,

Honorable Sir,

Your most Obedient & humble Servant

A. Teaguroy

My dear Mr. Mangles.

The bearer of this, a lady named Saravanan desires me to give him a letter to you to recommend him to fill a situation now vacant in your office. I venture to do so for I am able to recommend him as a very respectable steady and diligent boy, one who while he was in School gave me much pleasure by his conduct and progress, and who even now is urging me to allow him to come here in the evening that he may receive instructions with my boarders and senior pupils. There are not many Madras boys whom I care to recommend, but I feel confidence that Saravanan will do credit to my recommendation and to the confidence of an employer. I do hope that you will be able to spare a few minutes sometime & come and see our School. Our hours are from 9.15 and from 1.3 except Saturday. With kind

J. J. Marks

Saravana Moodelliar has worked under me since January last and has behaved exceedingly well. He has always been willing, attentive, and careful. I should be sorry to lose him, but at the appointment for which he proposes to apply, a permanent one, and the salary is double what he gets now. I beg to recommend his application for the favourable consideration of the Controller.
