that I have carefully examined 2^d class Constable Khamiah 268 of the Kellore Police Constab-lishment that his age is by his own statement 48 years and by appearance about 40 years and that I find him on account of great debility causing difficulty of breathing on the least exer-tion unfit for further executive Duty work - not in my opinion attributable to intemperance or

Office of the Superintendent of Police, District, 1887.

Considering this man's general character as a Police man, as also the grounds on which he is recommended for a compassionate allowance, I do not think it a fit object for consideration. I am, Sir, very respectfully, Yours obediently,
Superintendent of Police.

Applications for the grant of gratuity to 2nd Class Constables of the Madras Police.

Memorandum

Letter from the Inspector General of Police, No. 754 dated 5th Feb. 1870.

The Inspector General submits for the order of Government an application for gratuity from the Police Superannuation Fund to Constant Karmaya, who has served for 9 yrs. 7 m. 20 d. in the Madras Police, and has been discharged on account of incapacity for further service from "great obesity, causing difficulty of breathing on the least exertion." The Superintendent of Police states that his character has been "indifferent," and the Deputy Inspector General remarks,
"Considering this man's general character as a policeman, as also the grounds on which he is recommended for a compassionate allowance, I do not think him a fit object for compassion. If it or orderly duty might suit him."

1. Sep. 1865. From 5th Const. to 1st class Const. For misappropriating some cartridges of his station. (Again promoted in April 1866) Constant Karmaya was twice promoted to the grade of Deputy Con-
2. April 1866. From 1st class Const. to 1st class Const. For failing to proceed at once to enquire stable, and three times degraded into a robbery, on the day it was reported as noted in the margin. The first
3. May 1866. From 1st class Const. to 1st class Const. For sending up a case to the Joint Magt. fault was probably the result of carelessness rather than dishonesty, whatever.

in the second case the spirit may have been willing but the flesh weak; & the third offence seems to have been a mere error of judgment. No other punishments appear to have been recorded against the applicant.

2. I submit that he may be allowed a gratuity of Rs 40, Rs 14 being deducted from the full amount payable.
