Sir,

With reference to your Memorandum dated 23rd Ultimo and its enclosure, I have the honor to submit herewith printed form of application for gratuity under the new rules on behalf of N. Venkanna Peshear of the Pittapur management. This individual was entertained in the Government permanent employ on the 1st August 1842 and continued in it until 31st March 1852 without any break in his service. On the 1st April 1852 he was employed by the Collector as Amin of Chellurutta in the Pittapur Estate which was then brought under management of the Court of Wards, the zemindar being a minor.

Junior, and was reduced on the 31st January 1862 when the Estate was made over to the zemindar. Under the Government Order dated 18th May 1863 No. 858 (a copy of which is herewith sent as requested in your Memorandum) his service in the Estate may therefore count towards pension. As he is not entitled to pension under the old Rules which were in force when he was reduced, I have sent this application for gratuity for which he is qualified.

2 As this man was not thrown out of employ from old age, infirmary or debility I do not think it is necessary for him to obtain a certificate of unfitness from the Medical Officer.

3 Application for the Pensions is herewith forwarded in the usual form under the old Rules.

4 The applications of these individuals were not submitted earlier, because the parties have delayed in making applications.

I have the honor to be Your most obedt^{servt} servant

Sir,

Herewith returned

In reply to your letter of the 2nd December last, I have the honor to inform you that Maddipatla Venkanna therein alluded to first entered the Government service as samutdar of Pendamo oolanka in Annapur Taluq on the 29th March 1839. He was dismissed from service on the 1st July 1840 for some irregularity in the discharge of his duties. He was reappointed on the 30th August 1840 as Samutdar of Nadyam Mulla of the Pittapur Estate which was then under management of the Court of Wards. He continued in it up to 31st July 1842. He was then then transferred as Samutdar of Ramachudrapur on the 1st August 1842. On the 2nd July 1844 he was transferred as Samutdar of Kola, where he remained upto 21st September 1847.

Ramachudrapur and Kola were then Zamindaries and were under attachment for arrears of Government Pesheush. They were sold and purchased on behalf of Government on the 9th December 1846 and 11th September 1846 respectively. On the 22nd September 1847 he was transferred as Samutdar of Kolauke which then belonged to Government. While in this situation, he was appointed as Amin of Chellur Mulla of the Pillapur Estate which was under the charge of the Court of Wards.

All these appointments were made by the Collector only. A copy of the order dated 1st August 1842 No 34 appointing him as Samutdar of Ramachudrapur is herewith sent as requested. His service has been computed from 1st August 1842. His service as Samutdar of Kadyam was ¹⁵ not included because he entered the management service after dismissal from Government service.
