Sir. I have the honor to inform you that I have carefully examined Head Constable Chowla's answer of 20th in terms of your letter of 8th dated 2nd May 1890. I see no reason why any alteration should be made in the Certificate of Dr. Duff.
 The man is too weak for Active Service
 such as is required of a Police Constable.
 If his duties were of a sedentary character I should think he could carry them on for some years yet.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 16th November 1870.

No. 27. To the Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Fort Saint George, 16th November 1870, No. 466.

I am directed to request the sanction of the Government of India to the admission of one Toolooceanum, a Head Constable of the Madras Town Police, to pension under the following circumstances.

2. He entered the old Town Police as a Taliar on the 8th June 1848, and served till the 15th February 1870. His whole service is thus twenty years, eight months, and seven days. For two years, ten months, and fifteen days prior to his retirement on medical certificate he was a Head Constable on Rupees 22 per mensem, and, under the Resolutions of the Government of India noted in the margin, he is, therefore, to be pensioned under the Uncovenanted Service Rules, and his qualifying service commences from the 1st November 1856, the date upon which Act XIII. of 1856 constituting the Superannuation Fund came into force, and from which his subscription began. He has thus completed thirteen years, three months, and fifteen days' eligible service, which entitles him to a maximum gratuity of twelve months' pay, or Rupees 264.

3. Up to the abolition of the Madras Police Superannuation Fund, it had been the practice to admit, as qualifying for pension from the Fund, service rendered in the Madras Town Police Force prior to 1st November 1856; and, as it was laid down that the abolition should not affect the benefits enjoyed by the subscribers, the practice has been continued since.

4. Accordingly, had the applicant now referred to not been appointed a Head Constable and brought under the operation of the Uncovenanted Civil Service Pension Rules shortly before his retirement, he would have been eligible to, and would have obtained, a pension under the Superannuation Fund Rules, as his service in the Town Police was in excess of fifteen years; and, under these circumstances, which appear to His Excellency the Governor in Council to be productive of hardship, I am to recommend that he be admitted to pension precisely as if he had remained under the Superannuation Fund Rules, and that this Government may be authorized to deal similarly with similar cases.

(Signed) R. S. ELLIS,
Chief Secretary.

NOVEMBER.

No. 72.

Requesting sanction of the Government of India
to the admission of one Toolooaanum, a Head Constable of the Madras Town Police, to pension.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department.
6th January 1871.

No. 12. Read the following letter from the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Fort William, 27th December 1870, No. 3861:—

Pensions and Gratuities.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 466, dated 16th November 1870, submitting the case of Toolooaanum, a Head Constable of the Madras Town Police, who, being at the time of his retirement in the receipt of a pay of Rupees 22 a month, is entitled to pensionary provision in accordance with the rules of the Uncovenanted Service, which rules, however, act prejudicially in his case.

2. In reply, I am to say that the Governor-General in Council is pleased, on the recommendation of the Government of Madras, to sanction the admission of Toolooaanum to pension precisely as if he had remained under the Superannuation Fund Rules. His Excellency in Council also authorizes the Government of Madras to deal similarly with cases like that of Toolooaanum.

3. I am, however, to remark that the Governor-General in Council does not understand the allusion of the Government of Madras, in the 3rd paragraph of your letter, to the abolition of the Superannuation Fund of the Madras Town Police because Act X. of 1869 did not in any way refer to that Fund.

Ordered that a copy of the above letter be furnished to the Accountant-General Madras.

No. 13. ORDER THEREON, 6th January 1871, No. 10.
