Chief Secretary to Government

Sir

With reference to the order in the Pension Department No. 687 dated 7th ultimo I have the honor to state that Sunitapettah Rungiah late Warden at Chittoor Jail is unable to give the date of his discharge from the 10th Regiment A.D. or his number while belonging to it, and no information is procurable on the subject from the Officer Commanding the Regiment now at Dornada, and to whom application was made - Colonel Tweedie states that there is nothing in the Regimental Records regarding Sunitapettah Rungiah and

and that neither any of the Native Officers or old Pensioners with the Regiment recollect anything about him. He adds that the Regiment was at Vellore in 1840 and sent Detachments to Chittoor, but that none of the men now in the Regiment appear to have heard of Rungiah as having belonged to the 10th.

2. The papers received with the order are herewith returned -

I have the honor to be
Sir

Your Most Obedt. Servt.
