1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the cold. It was a sharp contrast to the warm, humid air of the tropics. I had heard that the weather was perfect, but I didn't realize it would be so different. The air was crisp and clean, a welcome change from the sticky heat of home. I took a deep breath and felt a sense of relief. The landscape was beautiful, with rolling hills and a few scattered houses. It was a peaceful scene, exactly what I needed after a long flight.

The weather was perfect, just what I needed. The hills were beautiful, and the houses were charming. I was lucky to find such a nice place. The people were friendly, and the food was delicious. I was in luck. The weather was just what I needed. The hills were beautiful, and the houses were charming.

Krishna District Collector's Office
Masulipatam 5 January 1871.

From

To

J. A. C. Boswell Esquire
Off. Collector of Krishna District.
Captain W. H. Hoskins Superintendent of Police Krishna District.

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No 426 dated 25th November 1870, & to furnish the following explanation in regard to items 39 & 40 specified in Accountant General's memo dated 15th November 1870, about the Compassionate allowance applied for by the Constable Hovi Lakshunna No 1273.

No 39.

When the gratuity list was prepared in the year 1862 no enquiry was made as to the service of the applicant in the several Taluqs of the late Masulipatam District. The service of 15 years was entered from the information received from the Head of Police of Ponnastalam Taluq at which the applicant was reduced. The service entered in the Register of application was ascertained from enquiries made through the Tahasildars of the different Taluqs. Hence the difference between the two documents.

The sum of Rs. 20 referred to, formed part of the same credit in the accounts for the month of January 1870 under the head Recoveries of Cash.

2 The enclosure of your letter are returned herewith for transmission to the Accountant General.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most obedient servant
