Sir

In returning the accompanying Register of application for Superannuation Pension, I have the honor to state that the particulars pointed out in your letter of December 1870 has been Attended to.

2. With reference to the difference of date between the Medical Certificate and Register of application for Superannuation Pension, I state in explanation that, after the receipt of the Medical Certificate only steps were taken to obtain the blank form and prepare the Register, thus the delay alluded to in Para 24 of your letter under reply was occasioned, but as the man was only struck off duty from the date of the Register the Medical Certificate was accordingly corrected so as to agree with the Register.
