Remarks by the Head of the Office on past character and conduct of the applicant throughout the service.

Mr. J. C. Rozario first entered Government Service in August 1860 as Head Clerk and Draftsman in the office of the Commandant of Engineers and subsequently in the office of the Sanitary Commissioner Madras from the time of the organization of the Commission in 1864. During his whole service Mr. J. C. Rozario's conduct appears to have been good and he conducted his work satisfactorily. The certificates in his possession given to him by my predecessors testify to the zeal and ability with which he conducted the duties assigned to him in the Sanitary Commissioner's office and to his good character.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

No. 45.

FROM

THE HON. R. S. ELLIS, C.B.,
Chief Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George,

TO

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I am directed to forward, for the favourable consideration and orders of the Government of India, the marginally noted papers having reference to the claim for gratuity of Mr. D'Rozario, late Examiner of Correspondence and Record-keeper in the Sanitary Commissioner's Office.

2. Had Mr. D'Rozario retired in June 1869, his gratuity would have been Rupees 600, his salary then being Rupees 100. The abolition of his appointment in that month obliged him either to retire or to accept a post of Rupees 50 per mensem. He chose the latter alternative hoping soon to obtain employment in a higher grade; but the abolition of the post which he, till recently, filled has thrown him altogether out of employ.

3. In consideration of the undoubted hardship of his case, I am to request that the Supreme Government will be pleased to sanction the grant to him of a gratuity of Rupees 600, the amount for which he would have been eligible had he retired in June 1869.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Chief Secretary.

ORDER OF GOVERNMENT.

I should like to see the papers submitted to me in order to make a proper report on the matter & make a proper recommendation. I am aware of Mr. D'Rozario's services but have not noticed in June 1869 that he had retired. His gratuity would have been calculated on the higher salary which he drew prior to the reduction caused at the former period. Mr. D'Rozario is entitled to a gratuity of Rs 350 for his service in the service of years 1-4-22, and the pay during this time is sanctioned.

441 1870

He retired in June 1869 his gratuity was at that time Rs 600, but by staying on he received Rs 600 in June, and further his service is not long enough to entitle him to special consideration. He made his election in June 1869 to retire with Rs 600

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 9th March 1871.

No. 9. Read the following letter from the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Fort William, 21st February 1871, No. 969:—

Pensions and Gratuities.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 45, dated 27th January 1871, regarding a claim to gratuity in behalf of Mr. T. C. D'Rozario, late Examiner of Correspondence and Record-keeper in the Sanitary Commissioner's Office, Madras.

2. It is observed that, previous to his appointment as Examiner of Correspondence and Record-keeper, Mr. D'Rozario was Head Clerk in the General Department of the Sanitary Commissioner's Office, on a pay of Rupees 100 a month, and that, on the abolition of that office in June 1869, he accepted the post of Examiner of Correspondence and Record-keeper, the pay of which was only Rupees 50 a month. The acceptance of the lower paid office, which he held for a brief period, does not, I am to say, bar his claim to the gratuity which was admissible to him on the abolition in June 1869 of the higher paid office, and the Governor-General in Council is pleased to authorize the grant to Mr. D'Rozario of gratuity calculated on the service rendered by him up to June 1869, and on the pay then received by him.

3. In regard to the calculation of service, I am to state that, though under rule, period of employment before the age of 22 is not allowed to count, the rule is not enforced in the case of grants of gratuity on account of abolition of office. The benefit, therefore, of his service before the age of 22 being allowed to Mr. D'Rozario, he has a service of eight years, seven months, and four days, viz., from 1st August 1860 to 4th June 1869, less three months' absence on leave, and this renders him eligible to a gratuity of Rupees 800, equal to eight months' pay, which is accordingly sanctioned.

4. The enclosures of your letter are herewith returned.

Ordered that a copy of the above letter be furnished to the Accountant-General, Madras.
