dated 11th February 1851

Deposition given by

Bungaroo raja Duffadar in the Quit rent department of the Madras Depy Collectors office

Question — Do you know how long and from what year Quit rent Peon Runga Raja of Poraswakum division and Quit rent Peon Soobiah Moorthy of Mootialpetta division, in the Madras district have been in govt. employ?

Answer — I was first employed as Peon in the abkarry department of the Madras Collectors office on seven rupees pay per mensem in the year 1834, and I was there some time & afterwards transferred to the Quit rent department. When I was first entertained in the abkarry department I saw the aforesaid Runga Raja and Soobraya Moorthy already employed before me on seven rupees pay each per mensem in the Quit rent department. After they were transferred to the Quit rent department I saw them in employ and they continued in service till nearly six months ago when they retired from active service and they now claim pension. These two individuals having been in employ before me I am unable to state in what particular years they were employed.
