Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 9th December 1870.

22. Read the following letter from the Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Fort William, 25th November 1870, No. 3156 :—

sions and Gratitudes.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 392, dated 26th September 1870, submitting the case of Mr. J. C. Winscom, a Deputy Collector on Madras establishment, who prior to his appointment as Deputy Collector on the Madras establishment, was employed as Deputy Collector of License, Certificate, and Income Taxes, and who requests that service from 24th April 1867 to the 31st December 1869 may be allowed to him for leave and pension as an uncovenanted servant.

2. The Government of Madras recommends that Mr. Winscom's application be granted, and that generally a ruling be issued as to the status, in respect of leave and pension, of the servants employed in the collection of the late License, Certificate, and existing Income Taxes.

3. In reply, I am to say that the Governor-General in Council sees no reason for retrospectively converting into pensionable service a service which is non-pensionable because rendered as a temporary arrangement; such retrospective conversions to emoluments or advantages are inadmissible.

4. As to the general principle, the Governor-General in Council desires me to remark that an officer in Government service detached for employment in the License Tax, Certificate Tax, and existing Income Tax Departments as an agent in his official career is, of course, entitled to pension in respect to such employment, and that probably it is desirable ordinarily so to arrange for the duties of such Departments. If, however, an officer is taken on temporarily in any Department, he cannot claim the benefit of the temporary service towards pension.

Ordered that copies of the above letter be furnished to—

The several local Governments (Government of Madras excepted) and Administrations; the Comptroller-General of Accounts; the several Accountants-General; the several Deputy Accountants-General in independent charge, and the Military and Public Works Departments.

23. ORDER THEREON, 9th December 1870, No. 498.

Communicated to the Revenue and Pension Departments, and to Mr. J. C. Winscom.
