Camp Birmingham 24th March 1871

From
J. Culling Carr Esquire
Acting Collector, Ganjam

The Accountant General Fort Saint George

Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 3rd instant No 7368 I have the honor to explain that the pensioner Seetamah reports that she is very old and unable to go every month to the Treasury which is at about 15 miles distant from her station. However she promises to draw her pension once in six months.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most Obedient Servant
