18 May 1870, W. Donald Esquire, Examiner of Claims in the Accountant General's Office,
Port Saint George.

Sir, I have the honor to submit the following explanation on Items 28 & 29 enumerated in your letter dated 28th April 1870, herewith returned.

2. The applicant Gaddam Venkata Ramana was never re-employed since the date of the abolition of his Office in 1862. He is now without employ.

3. In the margin opposite to para 2 of the Proceedings of Government 288 dated 29th June 1865, a statement showing the names of Pione whose service is more than 20 years, is given. The name of the applicant Venkata Ramana is included in it. The Government directed that the new Register of applications for compassionate allowance should be submitted on behalf of all the above individuals. Since the applicant's name was not entered in the gratuity list embodied in the G.O. alluded to above.

The original Register of application is returned.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,
Your most obedt. Servt.

B. Horsburgh Esq.

Acting Sub Collector
in charge.

Comptroller

11 months 22 days.

The remainder of his service is verified by public records.
Applicant stated at one time that from Bellare he was transferred to this District, and from this to Rajahmundry, and he now contradicts himself by saying that he was transferred to Rajahmundry direct from Bellare. This I attribute to bad memory. The former statement appears to be the more probable of the two.

Copy of the L. O. No. 238 of 1865 is herewith furnished as required.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. M. M. M.
