Office of Contr^l of Mil^y Accounts.
Fort St. George, 27th June 1865, X

Memorandum.

The A^g Controller of Military Accounts in returning Copy of the testimonials of E. Teroovengadum Moodelly observes with reference to his letter of this day's date, that E. Teroovengadum Moodelly was admitted into the Office of the Examiner Pay Department for twelve months on probation as Auditor in the Bill Department.

2. Having failed to give satisfaction in this Department in which his errors have on more than one occasion been the cause of serious embarrassment to the Examiner, E. Teroovengadum Moodelly was, with a view to enable him to obtain other employment, temporarily retained, and subsequently transferred to the Audit Department.

3. He did not enter upon his new duties but immediately obtained a Medical Certificate on very insufficient grounds.

4. He has since been allowed the indulgence of 30 days Privilege Leave to allow of his seeking other employment. At the expiration of that period his services in the Department will be dispensed with.

Signed C. H. Drury Major
A^g Controller of Mil^y Accounts.

To,
E. Teroovengadum Moodelly.

The Secretary to Government.
Military Department.
Fort Saint George.

Sir, I beg leave most respectfully to submit the following prayer for the favorable orders of Government.

One enclosure,
copy of testimonials.

2. In June 1865, I was employed in the Military Pay Examiner's Office as a First Class Auditor on a salary of Rupees 200 per mensem, when my services were summarily dispensed with by the late Controller of Military Accounts, as will be seen from the accompanying copy of that Officer's Memo: dated 27th June 1865, No. 242.

Tide Controller's
Notification dated 23rd June 1865 published in page 1318 of the Fort St. George
Gazette.
Dated 27th idem

3. It will be observed from para. 1 of the Controller's Memo that a month's Privilege leave was granted to me, to enable me to look out for an employment elsewhere. The leave was granted from the 14th June 1865, and expired on the 14th July 1865. On the 5th July 1865, and before the expiration of my Privilege leave, I appealed to Government against the proceedings of the Controller, and their decision is recorded in the G. O. Military Department dated 7th August 1865 No. 2901.

4. On the receipt of the orders of Government, I applied for the appointment of Head Accountant in the Office of the Board of Revenue, which was then vacant, and though I succeeded in getting it almost immediately, I could not draw any salary before the 18th August 1865; the date on which my predecessor, who was appointed as Deputy Collector in charge of the Treasury at Cuddalore, took charge of his new post. Thus, it will be seen, that I drew no pay from Government from the 15th July to 17th August 1865, an interval of one month and four days.

5. As my case was pending before Government until the 7th August 1865, I could not consistently look out for an appointment in any other Department of the Service before that date and after succeeding in getting one, immediately on the receipt of the order of Government, I could not draw any salary before the 18th of that month and hence there a short break.

After my entertainment in the Board's Office, the Audit Department tenched my first month's salary with reference to the break in service, & the Government, on the recommendation of the Board, were pleased to recognize me as an old servant, by exempting me from passing the educational tests required under the examination rules.

As the short break was caused partly by my case having been under the consideration of Government, and partly by my having had to draw my salary in the Board's Office, a few days after I got it and as I was given a month's Privilege leave by the Controller of Military Accounts, to enable me to look out for another appointment, respectfully and earnestly beg that Government will be pleased, in consideration of my long and useful service, extending over a period of Twenty three years to declare that I should be considered as having been on leave during the period under reference, or otherwise I will, under the Pension rules, be deprived of the benefit of nearly 16 years service rendered before the break in question.

I beg to remain,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant.

Report of the Accountant General.

On Seroosengadum Moodellip's request, that he may be considered as on leave of absence during the period intervening between the expiry of his privilege leave in July 65, when his services in the office of Controller of Military Accounts were dispensed with, and his re-employment in Government service in August of the same year in the office of the Board of Revenue, cannot in the opinion of the undersigned be conceded under any of the leave rules. It is evident however that his object in making such a request is that he may be enabled to count former service towards pension and this it is presumed he can be allowed to do without being affected by the intermediate break. Should Government consider that the cause of dispensing with his services in the office of the Military Controller is not of so serious a nature as to entail forfeiture of past service - His case would seem to fall under Section 21, para 620, of the Mysorewants Servants' Vada Macam.
