Commissary General dated 23^d Decr 1854

Para 7. Neucatanarsial, Head Comisophy attached to the Peimshub Department, is a man of excellent abilities, honest & trustworthy, and has been of the greatest service to me, whenever supplies have been got by Departmental means, and is well deserving of an increase of his pay.

Vencatanarasiak the Head Conicopol, is a man of Excellent abilities, honest and trustworthy, I have found him extremely useful in procuring Supplies by Departmental means, and never had reason to find fault with him - in fact, he is a very valuable servant.

Vencatanarasiak Head Conicopol of this Department is a very valuable man in procuring Supplies by Departmental means. I have never had an occasion to find fault with him, nor have I heard a single complaint from any one under me against him always ready & obliging and particularly respectful.

Vencatanarasiak Head Conicopol, is and an intelligent, honest, and trustworthy man.

Shortly after my taking charge here during the hot weather owing to want of rain, there was very great difficulty in procuring Forage, and had it not been for his exertions, I hardly know what I could have done. I recommend him as a valuable servant.

Department."

Vencatanarasiak is in every respect a most efficient and trustworthy servant. Full of resources, and always obliging and attentive.
His thoughts are now more directed towards a Pension than promotion, but I consider his present salary is very inadequate - recompense for the responsible duties he is called upon to perform, and which he has always conducted in the most satisfactory manner.
