Sir,

With reference to the order of Government No 198 dated 9th March last, rejecting the claim of Shaik Hammed for a Compassionate allowance, on the ground that his statement that he was first entertained by Mr Bruce in 1832, could not be true, because that Gentleman first went to Guntur in 1836. I have the honor to state for information of Government, that the declaration made by Shaik Hammed in his former affidavit, that he was entertained in 1832, appears to be correct in as much as Mr Bruce took charge of the Guntur District as Acting Collector in 1831, and not in 1836 as stated in Government Order under reference, as will appear from the enclosed copy of the report submitted by that Gentleman to the Board of Revenue, which is dated the 21st July 1831. Under these circumstances, Shaik Hammed's service would certainly be 38 years from 1832 to 1870, a period sufficiently long to entitle
