TESTIMONIALS OF CHARACTER, &c.
OF MR. C. A. VINT.

No. 1.

Mr. VINT was an Accountant on 35 Rupees on my first taking charge of the Audit Office, and was rapidly promoted by me to his present * position in consequence of his superior intelligence and application to business. I consider him a very deserving and promising public servant.

(Signed) LUSHINGTON.

No. 2.

I have a very high opinion of Mr. VINT's care and judgment. I very rarely have occasion to differ from the latter or point out any want of the former.

(Signed) W. WATERFIELD.

No. 3.

Mr. VINT has performed his duty in a careful and efficient manner, and I have been quite satisfied with his work. I think highly both of his abilities and judgment.

(Signed) W. BALMAIN.

18th November 1860.

No. 4.

A highly deserving and efficient public servant, in whom the fullest confidence may be placed. I have had every reason to be perfectly satisfied with Mr. VINT's work, and would be glad to see him advanced in the Department, for I consider him well worthy of filling a higher post than he holds at present.

28-1-61.

(Signed) W. J. RAYNOR.

No. 5.

I have shewn my sense of Mr. VINT's character and usefulness in recommending him for the post of Senior Auditor. It will give me great pleasure to hear that he has obtained the increased salary.

22-7-61.

(Signed) W. WATERFIELD.

No. 6.

Very much pleased with every thing that passed through Mr. VINT's hands. He is perfectly competent to be Chief Assistant, and I hope he may get it at the first vacancy.

25-4-63.

(Signed) H. A. MANGLES.

No. 7.

I have much pleasure in testifying to the excellent way in which Mr. VINT has behaved and done his work during the time he has served under me. Careful, painstaking, clever and anxious to do his duty on all occasions thoroughly well, and not as many do by halves, he possesses all the qualities required in an Auditor, and I consider him one of the best specimens of that class of man I have ever met with. My experience now extends over some years, and I have been in more than one Audit Office, but I cannot call to mind more than one or two men who are his equals, and I do not think I can name any one decidedly his superior.

MADRAS,

(Signed) R. W. LODWICK,

11th January 1865.

Civil Pay-Master.

I, W. Whippesfield, Surgeon and Acting Physician General Hospital, Madras, do hereby certify that Mr. Charles Alfred Vint, Superintendent of the Audit Department of the Accountant General's Office, Madras, has been under my treatment for a few days, for Pulmonary Consumption, from the symptoms of which he has suffered for many years; and that he is not likely to derive permanent benefit from further treatment or from change of air. He is, in my opinion, unfit for further service; and, to the best of my judgment, such disqualification is not the result of intemperance, or other irregular habits.
