Sir,
My only source of information regarding the services of the man Sakwapi (referred to in your letter of yesterday's date) is the Nazim's Salgah batta book. I find on referring to it, that Sakwapi was paid in full for May 86. The payments to the different persons in June were of varying amounts, but Sakwapi received in that month only 10 annas or about a quarter of the average paid to the rest, so that he probably was employed for a few days only in that month. I have no means of ascertaining precisely the date on which he ceased doing duty in the Court, but it was doubtless early in the month of June. The statement made in my letter of 10th Instant that he he was employed here till the 30th appears to be incorrect. —
