2. From the original acquittance
Roll of the Tanjore Taluk for April 1860,
I see, that Appaji Rao drew his pay not understand how he could have done so if he had entered into the

your letter is herewith returned corrected, in accordance with the said acquittance Roll.

Under Section 2 of the Police Service & Sup. Rules, H.E. the S. in C. is pleased to grant to the individuals noted in the margin, who have been discharged from the Tanjore Police as unfit for further duty, the gratuities specified opposite their names.
2. The gratifications assigned to Nos 3 & 9 are each less than the maximum gratification to which they are eligible. The reduction has been made in consequence of their having been degraded the first for "bribe crime" & the second for lying. The degradation of Appajee Row No 7 has been overlooked, as intimated by nearly 8 years subsequent good service, & in accordance with the Superintendent's commendation. No 13 was twice degraded for neglect of duty & his character has not been good. His gratuity has been reduced by Rs 10.
3. Constable Virasami has served in all for 34y. 9m. 28d, a period very little short of what would entitle him to compassionate allowance. He was for 6y. 10m. 11d a "visāripan" & for 7y. 7m. 29d a Subbanti person. The Collector of Tanjore will report the nature of his duties in these capacities. The same gratification as regards Appajee Naik, whose whole service amounts to 40y. 10m. 25d.
4. Constable Viraraghava Naik claims service amounting to 40y. 10m. 25d. of which 18 years service, said to have been rendered in the Shalvi Taluk cannot be verified from records. If he can prove this service he will be eligible to compassionate allowance. The Collector of Tanjore will institute the necessary enquiries with reference to the notification published under date 29th Nov. 1870.
