state there is no information available on the

the breaks in the Peon Chengalroy Naicks to have been caused by the transfer of the

From

To

The Accountant General
Madras.

Sir,

In reply to your memo of the 12th December last returning the register of applications of 24 individuals for gratuities I have the honor to state:-

1st As regards query No 23 that the applicants soon after the reduction of establishment in 1860 left their respective stations in search of new means of livelihood and having thus become scattered in different parts of the Country their applications were received from all directions. They did not appear for identification until 1868 when a notice under the orders of the Board of Revenue was published in the Gazette requiring that that all such applications as were not received within March 1868 should be rejected. This served to secure the attendance of the applicants among others and Mr. Richardson, the late Treasury Deputy Collector, was entrusted with the duty of Scrutinizing their services. From the list that was made out under his instructions the present register was prepared and submitted.

2dly As regards query No 39 I beg to state that Mr. Richardson put himself in Communication with the Tahsildars and obtained lists of the applicant's services and with reference both to these lists and his own enquiry a book of claims of these applicants for gratuities was prepared. Such of them as were considered eligible for gratuity were included in the register submitted by me on the 22d November last. I herewith forward extracts in English of the Tahsildar's list as required. The book of claims which formed the the basis of the present Register will be forwarded, if necessary.

Seshaiya No 14 on the register appears to have been suspended from office for 3 months & 17 days for remissness in collecting Government Revenue. This period has therefore been excluded from the total period of service.

Shek Adam No 18 on the register is entered in the Tahsildar's list as Shek Nader but as the former name is the result of careful enquiry made by Mr Richardson it should be taken as the correct one.
