Memo for orders

Mr. Gopalayya found writer in the Commissariat Department at Hoosoor, retired in November 1862. He served for years 12-1-0 up to 1841, when he resigned, forfeiting his previous service.

He was again entertained as acting forest writer at Hoosoor on full pay in March 1851, & served as such till April 1856, when he was confirmed. On 25th November 1862, his post was abolished. He had thus 5 yrs. 4 m. acting service followed by 6 yrs. 3 m. 9 d. permanent service in the same post. The controller of Military Accounts reports that he is entitled to count the whole of this service, or 11yrs. 5m. 7d.;

which, under the old rules, (those in force at the time of his retirement) enables him to claim a gratuity of 4 months pay or Rs (210)

2 There is some doubt about this. The only ruling under which he can claim the acting service, is paras of G. I.

Resolution 31st Jan 1868

N^o 633, quoted in the margin. But persons not permanently enrolled on any Govt establishment who act for the Government as servants in eligible grades & 9th Dec. others employed in ineligible grades, who may be appointed 9th Dec. 1870 N^o 6193, that the to act in eligible grades, permanent holder of the may count for pension the period of official service, appointment had been provided that they are sub-pensioned, & that the formal subsequently confirmed; & confirmation of Gopalayya that the absences are not was deferred through allowed to count for pension mistake. Thus he acted in the period of their absence, a full vacancy; & so far whether as regards allowances on retirement or the period of qualifying service the resolution just quoted, applies. But the resolution was not passed till nearly six years after his retirement, & though it may, in the case of men whose retirement has taken place since its issue, be held to apply retrospectively to service rendered before it was passed, it is doubtful whether it can be so applied to the case of men

men who retired before it was passed. Further from its phraseology it might be held to contemplate only service qualifying for pension under the new rules

3 If the resolution be held applicable to Gopalayya's case, he is entitled to gratuity of four months ^{pay} or Rs 210; if not to one of three months pay for his permanent service of 6 yrs. 6 m. 25 d. or Rs 157.8.

4 It is stated that Gopalayya, in the hope of obtaining re-employment, deferred his application. This is scarcely a valid excuse for a delay of 8 years.

5 Orders are requested whether he should get any gratuity; if he should, whether it should be three or four months pay

COMMISSARY GENERAL'S OFFICE,

From • The Commissary General,

To The Under Secretary to Government
Public Works Department
Fort Saint George.

N. 71.

Adverting to Memorandum dated 1st December 1850 from the Under Secretary to Government Public Works Department, the Commissary General has the honor to state that the situation in which Byroghully Gopaswami was acting from 1st March 1851 to 30th April 1856 was fully vacant, as his predecessor was transferred to the Pension establishment, and that the appointment was not, therefore, a temporary one.

2. The reason for his confirmation being so long deferred is not apparent from any of the records of this Office. It may however be stated that he was entertained as an Acting Clerk on pending the Orders of Government on the application submitted for Pension on behalf of his predecessor when the necessary orders were received, the confirmation was not made, it appears, by an oversight, as in 1856, the recommendation roll for the same was submitted and passed without any comment, as required by the Auditor of Commissariat Accounts.
