Ansd

The services of the individuals No. 1 have been entirely verified from the records of the Mint Department, now lodged in the Government Office, and those of No. 2 have been partly verified from the records of this office, and partly from those of the Chemical Examiner in charge of Assay Department. They are eligible to the amounts of gratuity set opposite to their respective names in Column 11 of the Register.

The applicants do not appear from the records of this office to have drawn any acting allowance when they were thrown out of employ.

The cause of delay in the submission of application until 24th March 1871, is explained by the Chemical Examiner in charge of Assay Department, in his letter of the 26th July 1871 No. 73 herewith accompanying.

The applicants appear to have been thrown out of employ under the orders of Government dated 2nd August 1869 No. 342, and 14th September 1870 No. 384 Financial Department respectively.
