Sir,
In submitting the accompanying application for a gratuity in favor of one Andar. Annappa, late Assistant Salt Superintendent of Mangeshwar, I have the honor to state that the delay in submitting it has been occasioned partly by references made to the Talukdar to verify the past services of the applicant and partly also by the preparation of the Register being delayed in my office in consequence of there having been several other applications to be checked and reported on during the last nine months.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

ORDER OF GOVERNMENT.

October 21st Letter to J. H. C. O'Connell re: Mr. H.
S. The J. H. C. is pleased to grant to Andrew O'Connell's letter of introduction? He will send you in the S. Conner his first report of 1880 1880, to which he refers, since he is in the territory now, in Elipha Graham's territory himself. The applicant being 62 years of age the delay in obtaining medical certificate is unimportant. The long period which elapses before the admission of the claim is however very important, as the fact that the man will not have been in similar delay.
