Report of the Accountant General

The services of the withinmentioned individual have been verified from the records of the Collector's Office. He left the service on 18th July 1864 and did not produce the Medical Certificate until the 22nd April 1871. The Collector has recommended him to a gratuity of 13 instead of 6 months pay, but unless Government is pleased to accept the Medical Certificate produced after so long a period subsequent to his retirement from the service, he is not entitled to any gratuity under the view taken of a similar case in Government Order dated 19th April 1871 No. 221, Pension Department.
