Extract from the letter of the Acting Sub Collector No 33 dated 26th January 1871, to the Acting Collector of Bellary.

I have the honor to ask your attention to the case of Trustage and Rangee, late Revenue peons in the Anantapur taluk.

2. In February 1870 during the jamahandi of the Anantapur taluk, after inspecting all the peons and questioning them as to their age and service, I picked out these two and two other men as manifestly unfit for further service from old age and infirmity, and told the Tahsildar that they had better resign, and that he was to find out from them the names of their sons or other relations who were suited for the post, and recommend them for appointment.

3. The Tahsildar submitted the names of four men and I understood from his letter that they were the sons of the late peons, and I accordingly sanctioned their appointment. I now find that only two were succeeded by their sons, the men

4. When this was brought to the notice of Mr. Stewart, late Acting Sub Collector he recommended them for gratuity. In your docket no 1070 dated October 6, you informed me that as they had left the public service before they had obtained a medical certificate they were not entitled to gratuity.
