Sir,

In reply to the letter of Accountant General dated 27th October 1870, received with your Memo No 2[illegible] of the same date, I have the honor to report that the information therein required is as follows.

28 ✓ 1st With reference to para 28 it appears that there is no Govt Order regarding Butchiah's appointment as he had been employed only by order of District Officers.

32 ✓ 2nd The necessary Correction is made as required in para 32.

39 — 3rd With regard to para 39 it appears that the former service of Butchiah was not inserted in the application for gratuity for his service as Sub overseer as his name was not borne in the returns sent to Civil Auditor previous to his entertainment as Sub overseer.

4th With reference to para 40. a remark in the register book of services kept in the workshop shews that Butchia's testimonials were all destroyed in the inundation of Dowlaishwaram which occurred in 1849. a testimonial furnished to him by Mr Lieut Engr Altman. is hereunto forwarded, which proves his employment from 1837 to 1842. and an extract from the register book in the workshop is forwarded in proof of his employment from 1st October 1847
