MADRAS, 24*th November*, 1862.

SIR,

I feel obliged by your letter of the 9th Instant and the kind expressions it contains.

I should be happy to be of any service to an officer of such high merit as yourself and I doubt not that you will ever meet with consideration from my colleagues of the Civil Service, who, equally with myself, hold you in much esteem.

I trust you may be successful in obtaining a change of appointment to a station nearer Madras. I heard it mentioned that you would probably be transferred to Tanjore, which I trust may suit you.

Believe me,
Your's very truly,
(Signed) T. L. STRANGE.

5

The Principal Sudr Amin, Kristnasami Iyer, being about to proceed to Tanjore on other duty, I have pleasure in stating at his request that I have been well satisfied with the manner in which he has performed his duties in the Court, and that he has shown great diligence and intelligence in the performance of them.

I have been visited by T. Kristnasami Iyer, Principal Sudr Amin of Tinnevelly, on the occasion of my approaching departure from India. I gladly take the opportunity of providing him with an expression of the high opinion I entertain of him as a Judicial Officer. His judgments have ever been treated with great respect by my colleagues and myself. They evince much impartiality, carefulness, and ability and stand unrivalled, in my mind, by those of any other officer of his class.

It is no small part of Kristnasami Iyer's merits that his rise to the highest place hitherto conferred upon Native Judges has not led him to remit those exertions which served first to bring him into notice.

Para 5. "Of the two Principal Sudr Amins now employed in this Zillah, I would propose to invest with special jurisdiction under the Act* the permanent officer Rungasamy Pillai. The Additional Principal Sudr Amin Kistnasamy Iyer holds merely a temporary appointment, and it will be best that he should be exclusively employed in his proper function of reducing the heavy file of Appeal arrears, so that, at the termination of the prescribed period of his appointment, the Government may be saved the expense of his salary and Establishment, and his Court be abolished. I give the preference to Rungasamy Pillai not because I consider Kistnasami Iyer (a very able Judge) is in any way disqualified for the duty, but because I consider that the officer permanently attached to the District should exercise the special jurisdiction which must now be permanently allotted in regard to a moiety of the Zillah."

DEAR SIR,

I have had the pleasure of receiving your letter to me of the 22nd October together with its accompaniments. I cannot think that the position you have so long held as Principal Sudr Amin can now be in risk, feeling assured that, should the Court you are in be done away with, due consideration to yourself personally will be shown.

I regret that it is not in my power now to advance your interests. If the testimonial in your favor which I gave you as I was leaving India does not meet with attention, nothing that I could now say would be of more weight. I feel however assured that your merits will not be overlooked when a proper opportunity of recognizing them occurs. You must simply exercise patience and not neglect to keep up the high character for efficiency and zeal which you have already earned.

Dear Sir,
Your's very truly,

13

I cordially endorse every thing that Mr. Strange has said regarding the impartiality, carefulness and ability shown by T. Kristnasami Iyer in the discharge of his duties. T. Kistnasami Iyer was Principal Sudr Amin of Tinnevelly during the greater part of the time that I was Civil and Session Judge of that District.

OOTACAMUND, June 14*th* 1864.

I have much pleasure in testifying, at the request of Kristnasami Iyer additional Principal Sudr Amin of Tanjore, that he has for the last 15 months (the period of my incumbency as Civil Judge of that Zillah) done his work carefully and zealously and to my entire satisfaction. I have reason to know that the Judges of the High Court have thought well of his Judgment and I am glad to state that, in the Tanjore District, Kristnasami Iyer has earned a high character for integrity and care as a Judicial Officer. His connection with Tanjore in his present office will probably ere long terminate, and it is in view to his re-employment in a similar capacity near Madras or Tanjore that Kristnasami Iyer desires from me a certificate regarding his past conduct. I trust this may further his interests.

My Dear Sir,

With the many testimonials you possess, I think any thing from me is almost superfluous; but since you request a few lines expressive of the high opinion I entertained of you as a public servant during the 6 or 7 months I was Acting as Civil and Session Judge in Tinnevelly, you being at the same time Principal Sudr Amin in that Zillah, I have much pleasure at having it in my power to state that what I saw of your work gave me such complete satisfaction and bore out so, all that I had previously heard, that were a Principal Sudr Amin's Court to be established at Chingleput, I should deem myself most fortunate in having you to preside over it. What can I say more, but that you have my best wishes and that

I am,
Your's faithfully,

The 2nd Writer of this Court Kristnasamy Iyer has made a verbal application to the Court stating that he is subjected to much inconvenience in consequence of his having no relatives in this part of the Country and requesting that the Pl Sudr Amin will be pleased to recommend him so that he may be appointed to the situation of Writer in the Civil Court of Combaconum which he states is now vacant. As the applicant Kristnasamy Iyer is well conversant with the English language and as he is well qualified in the Tamil Department so as to conduct the duties of a Writer or Goomastah in that language, and as he is well acquainted with the Regulations and Circular Orders, &c. and as he is very intelligent and renders various kinds of assistance in the performance of Circar bussiness, the P. SIR,

I am favored with your letter of the 5th Instant.

In reply, I beg to inform pou that I have the highest opinion of the qualifications and general character of Kristnasamy Iyer. He has a good knowledge of the Regulations and Circular orders and of the Hindu Law and the routine of duties in both the Civil and Criminal Departments of the Courts. I have known him from the year 1846, and I have always found him ambitious of improvement and desirous of devoting all his energies to the acquisition of knowledge useful to him as a public servant.

I have no doubt he will give satisfaction in any situation you may appoint him to. He has not passed the examination for Munsiff. He was recommended by Mr. Boileau as a fit candidate for examination; but the Sadr Adalut restricted the examination to persons who were acting as Munsifs.

not see any thing that I would have omited except the note, on Jurisdiction at page 53. I think you are wrong. You may be right in saying that it would be advisable and good that Munsiff's should have jurisdiction over the possessor of real property in their Districts. As regards such property, even though they be not actually residents in the Districts. but such is not the law Section XI Reguiation VI. of 1816 is positive. Suits can only be received "against a Resident within the jurisdiction" Sex XIII gives directions for proceedings in points not specially provided for—but "from and against whom suits shall be recieved" is specially provided for as is expressly pointed out in the very Section XIII. Only two days ago I ordered a suit to be struck off the file which a Munsif had received on the plea that it was for land within one of his villages though the debtor's house was within the limit of an adjacent village in the Jurisdiction of another Munsif.

Extract from the Athenaeum published under date the 18th May 1854.

"The two works to which we now call attention are "The District Munsif's guide" by Kristnasamy Iyer the Sheristadar in the Principal Sadr Amin's Court Trichinopoly; and a Lecture on "The Anglo Saxon and the Hindu by Mr. Dutt—one of the Masters of the High school. These two Essays while extremely different in their subjects may be regarded as still more different in their modes of treating their respective THESIS. The one is a model of condensation; the other an extreme example of amplification.

The Legal work we have perused with much pleasure. It is very carefully and clearly excuted, reflecting great credit upon the professional knowledge and assiduity of it's Author. It is a book which, not only every "District Munsiff, but every one who studies the Mofussil Law, would do well to provide himself with Should a second edition be called for, the compiler will, of course enlarge his volume by giving the Law as it affects the Criminal jurisdiction lately bestowed upon the Munsiffs; but we should rather urge him at once to extend his plan so as to embrace a consideration of the whole of the Mofussil Court's Civil Procedure. It would supply a want very much felt. Mr. Bayne's work although affording a convenient Synopsis of the Regulations and circular Orders, is of little use to those tolerably acquainted with Campbell's Code; and we can scarcely hope that either he, or any of the Judges, can find time for the execution of a work on Mofussil practice analogous to that which Macpherson has published for the Presidency of Bengal.

The "Munsiffs guide" is, however, executed upon the principle of Macpherson, and contains copious references to reported cases of the Sudr and Mofussil Courts; it may easily be amplified as we suggest, should the author meet with the encouragement which he deserves. On the whole we hail this useful book as an excellent proof of what education is doing among the Hindoos; We trust that it may be the forerunner of others of a similar character and we will not withhold our confession of even the surprise with which we perused so excellent a compilation upon so dry and difficult a subject by a Native.

Copy of a letter addressed by L. C. Innes Esquire Subordinate Judge of Combaconum.

Sir,

I have the honor to reply to the communication from your office of the 23rd January and to which an earlier reply could not be sent owing to my absence from my office on leave.

Mr—and Kristnasamy Iyer District Munsif of Valangiman are, as my observation leads me to belive exceedingly well qualified from their capacity, experience and character to fill the important office of Principal Sadr Amin.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Civil Court in the Zillah of Combaconum under date the 10th June 1855.

Read report submitted by the principal Sadr Amin of Combaconum under date the 9th Instant on the Examination of 37 Candidates for the office of Pleader in District Munsif's Courts.

The Civil Judge thanks the principal Sadr Amin Kristnasamy Iyer for the care and attention to his wishes with which the examination has been conducted, and resolves to recommend to the Court of Sadr Adalut the issue of certificates to the 10 candidates specified in the report.

Ordered that Extract from these Proceedings be forwarded to the principal Sadr Amin of combaconam for his information and that the Diary which accompanied the report may be returned.

Extrct from the Proceedings of the Civil Court of Tinnevelly under date the 31st May 1859.

1. I cannot leave for England without placing on record my high opinion of the Principal Sadr Amin Kristnasamy Iyer.

2. He has not long held his present appointment, still, I have seen enough of his decisions in Criminal business, and orders on Miscellaneous Petitions to convince me of his great abilities.

Extract of a letter from James Silver Equire Collector of Tinnevelly to the Board of Revenue.

The first on my list Kristnasamy Iyer Principal Sadr Amin I consider better fitted for the office of Deputy Collector than any other man I am acquainted with. His age is 36. He was educated at the Mission school at Combaconum, has served in the Courts of Tinnevelly, Trichinoply and Combaconum, and has also served as Munsif in Tanjore under my immediate supervision, from which post he was raised to the office of Principal Sadr Amin.

Kristnasamy Iyer is a man of great general intelligence, has not been satisfied with acquiring only a knowledge of the duties of his own branch of his service, but is also well informed in all the Revenue matters generally. He is an excellent English Scholar, singularly free from all prejudices of race, very diligent in the discharge of public business, of good temper, respected by his country men and I believe a man of strict integrity. As he recieves a salary of 500 Rupees a month, as Principal Sadr Amin, he would, of course, only seek to be transferred to the Revenue branch as a first class Deputy Collector.

The Register to the Court of Sadr Adalut.
Madras.

Sir,

In accordance with the wishes of Government as set forth in their Proceedings of the 3rd December, I have he honor to forward to the Court of Sadr Adalut the names of the only two persons I can at present think of and whom I can, with any degree of confidence, recommend as fitted for the post of Deputy Collector.

the 1st is Kristnasamy Iyer the Principal Sadr Amin at this station. and the 2nd. ———

Both these officers are in my opinion eminently fitted for the post of Deputy Collector as Judicial Officers. I belive there is no doubt they both hold a high place, but more than that, their uprightness I have reason to think is unimpeachable and their courtesy, good temper, and general character, are such that I have never heard either spoken of but in terms of confidence and respect by European or Native. In conclusion, I may observe they are both young or at most middle aged men and have a fair knowledge of the English language.

Mad Honored Sir, 49

I am one of those unfortunate men that suffer from chronic Dyspepsia - I have been suffering for more than ten years past - The effect of the complaint has gradually increased - I just returned from six months Sick Leave - but, on resuming office, I find that I was by no means cured

that I can conveniently discharge my duties satisfactorily. I am unable to sit in chair for hours together in the course of the day owing to sufferings and uneasiness in the stomach
accompanied by belching & frequent interceptions
caused by the calls of nature
My appetite is weak and bowels are irregular.
I discontinued eating rice
for more than a year past.
I live on Bolony and milk

51

my general health has
been greatly impaired.
I hoped to have remained
by six months absence on leave. But unfortunately I find, on return, that the symptoms are on again. I think I am not fit for further effective service. I therefore respectfully beg your honor
will have compassion on me & be pleased to have me transferred

by the Medical officer,
and, if he should certify
to my incapacity for further service to recommend me
kindly to the Honorable Government for superannuation pension - My service amounts to nearly 28 years - Of this period I have served nearly 14 years as a Pr Sastr Amin
in different districts - Since I acted as a Judge of the Court of Small Causes -
A years service more will

will entitle me to one half pension - But, under the present state of my health, I am compelled to be content with one third pension - I submissively request your honor will,
as a fatherly benefactor,
do me the charity of complying
with my request -

With humble respects,
I remain, most Honored Sir,
