OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

Official Memorandum from Chief Officer No. 6547 dated 7th Instant.

Encl: 3.

Constable Mohamed Jamal claimed to have served as a Jail Pon at Vellore previously to his enlistment in the Police. The Superintendent of Vellore Jail was accordingly communicated with. He reported that no man named Mohamed Jamal had ever served in the Vellore Jail but sent an extract from the Register of one Syed Jamal the only name at all resembling that of the Constable. This Syed Jamal is stated to have been 27 years of age and 5 ft 4 1/2 inches in height on the 27th September 1858. A comparison with the Police Register will show that Mohamed Jamal and Syed Jamal cannot be the same man.

With reference to the delay in submitting the Roll;

On the 24th July the Constable came in to Head Quarters. On the 25th letter was written to Jail Supd Vellore asking for information regarding the man's employment. This was despatched on the 25th July. On the 14th September a reminder was written, no answer having been received up to that date. This was despatched on the 18th Sept. The answer was received on the 21st. The subsequent delay was owing to my absence from Head Qrs and the necessity for a reference to me on account of the discrepancy in the names. The Cover containing the Fortnightly Roll was despatched on the 28th September.
