The Services of J. Scobaryen having been verified entirely from the records of the late Mint Office, and partly from those of this Office, he is eligible to the amount of gratuity under the old rules, set opposite to his name in column II of the Register. This applicant is not stated by the Chemical Examiner to have drawn any acting allowance when he was thrown out of employment by abolition of office.

The Services of Aroonachellum have been verified entirely from the records of the late Mint Office, and partly from those of this Office. His Service of years 12-9-14 on the Contingent or Extra Establishment, having vitiated previous Service of years 12-3-11 on the Permanent Establishment (Under the order of Madras Government dated 28th January 1870 No. 41 Pension Department) he is not entitled to any gratuity as his subsequent service falls short of 5 years.
