Translation of an order G. Theobald, Deputy of South Arcot, to the Sahibdar of Siddharthapur.

It does not appear that Kencata Raja, Revenue Inspector of the Mangalam Taluk, who was ordered by the Sahibdar to repair the village of Anthalora, and conduct, on the 14th (August) of the current year, the sale of the movable property attached of the arrears of land tax by Raja Kencata and others, conducted the sale on the said date in accordance with the order. The Revenue Inspector says that when he commanded the sale on the said date the said Raja Kencata and others

said

24

the 1st of August 1880

At the village of Kottayam, the Nattayan, who had been arrested, was taken to the Nattayan Room and he there had paid up their dues and produced the receipt and the money that he (the Revenue Inspector) then proceeded to dispose of the Buffalo distrained on account of the arrears due by Narayana Rao, Nattayan No. 3. That this sale began at 12 o'clock P. M. continued till evening for want of space and was then cracked down by people that came thither afterwards, that on the next day he was called away from the village for the preparation of the accounts of Relinquishing Rajaseemah, that he did not return to the village for

for 2 or 3 days and that he then sold the properties of Narayana Rao and Jaya Rao. He further states that when he again came to the village on the 27th of that month the Nattayan told him that the sale amount was collected, that he then ordered the Nattayan to remit that money and some other collections which amounted to 168 Rupees and add all to the Salog with a report to the Sahildan and that the Nattayan failed to do so. From the records framed in the Course of investigation of this case on the Criminal Side, it appears that during the defendants Perudo Royon, Subbaroyan & who were represented to have paid

24

paid their arrears and on the date of whose lands was therefore not begun did not really pay their arrears on the date of the sale but only subsequent to it. The Revenue Inspector's statement that the money was already paid up has made the Kottagar deserving of punishment. It seems that the Revenue Inspector who ought to have acted according to the spirit of the prescribed rule has completely failed to do so and caused unnecessary delay in the conduct of sales especially in the case of a single Buffalo which he took to do a whole day. All this shows that Venkataroyen is quite incapable to fill the responsible post.

post of Revenue Inspector which requires a thorough knowledge of law
I have therefore transferred Venkataroyen to the post of 3rd Jumnastab in your Taluk and appoint the 3rd Jumnastab in his stead to take effect from this date. You are to send Venkataroyen at once to do duty as Revenue Inspector and have the business of your Taluk done by Venkataroyen. Although
a. It is to be the fitness of Venkataroyen to the post of a Jumnastab that you are to give him a months probation and then report upon his competency when necessary orders will be issued about the matter.

Explanation of Column 6 with quotations of orders of reinstatement.

Explanation of any degradation.

The degradation of the applicants on the 10th October 1869 from the post of 4th Class Revenue Inspector on P. & S. to that of Gumastah in the Sub Magistrate's Office, Yellavanasery on P. & S. was in consequence of his having failed to conduct the sale of certain property attached for arrears of Revenue on the date prescribed in a Tahreef issued to him by the Tahildar as will be seen from the accompanying Translation of the Deputy Collector's Tahreef dated 10th October 1869 at P. & S.

Remarks by the Head of the Office on past character and conduct of the applicant throughout the service.

The applicant has served upwards of 31 years, but his services in grades eligible for Pension amounts to only 23 years 9 months. His conduct seems to have been good throughout. Taking into consideration the length of the applicant's service, viz. 31 years, and that the greater portion of it has been in eligible grades, the Collector recommends him for a gratuity of 5 months pay amounting to Rs. 45 to which he is entitled, under the Rules. The slight delay in the submission of this case, was due to the absence of a copy of the orders of degradation from the Tahildar.
