This is the only real instance of resignation and as he was again reemployed on the 1st July 1860 in the Collector's Office at Bombay, it would appear from Section 616 of the Unincorporated Servants Trade Decree that this break of 19 days does not affect the continuity of his service. The Government state that Sobbarao's affidavit does not correspond with the amount of service recorded in his favor in Mr. Hodges' Memorandum.

Memorandum

The objections raised by the Assistant Accountant General to the claim of Soobbarao to pension are,

(1) That he overstayed his leave for a period of four months and thereby forfeited his appointment of Head Post Office writer at Ootacamund.

As regards the 1st item, the applicant says that on the 12th April 1846 he obtained leave for two months and went to Talacud in Mysore, that he was not able to return within that period owing to his own illness and the death of his uncle, that he consequently applied to the

His petition was referred to the Cotacamund Post Master and on his return after recovery he was reinstated in his former post. The period during which he was actually without employ should be omitted, and the previous service may count for pension (Vide Section 69 of the Unconquered Civil Servants' Vade mecum)

As regards the 2nd objection; the applicant never resigned his appointment twice, but only once i.e. between the 11th May and 30th June 1860 (Vide item 1 of Column 8 in the 1st page of the Pension Register). With respect to the entry of the other two periods under the head of Resignation, the following is the explanation -

translation.

On the 1st January 1852 Mr Underwood late Acting Collector who was then at Cotacamund transferred Sootba Rao from the post of writer in the Cotacamund Post Office to a similar appointment in Jimbafore and directed him verbally to proceed at once. Sootba Rao started on the same day and reached Jimbafore on the 3rd, when he received Mr Underwood's order of appointment and took charge of the office. The 1st and 2nd January are therefore the days that he actually spent during the journey, and as he did not draw pay for those days from either office and as the Pension Register provided no other column for their entry, they were put down under the Column of Resignation. Again with reference to the period of one month and 15 days from the 27th

August

August to 10th October 1858, also entered under the same head;— On the 26th August 1858 he was transferred from the Deputy Post Master ship of Coimbatore to that of Salem. He applied for a month's leave to prepare himself for the journey and to proceed to Salem; but he was told that he should reach that place as early as possible and that he would get pay only from the date of his taking charge. The preparation and the journey, Soobbarao says, occupied him 15 days over and above the leave he applied for. For the above one and a half months he did not get pay and as stated before, as the Pension Register provides no column for such entry it was likewise put down under the head of "Resignation".

* vide accompanying original Memorandum from the Post Master General dated 25th June 1858. A 2983, and the Suspecting Post Master's letter dated 4th August 1858. 553.

On the 11th May 1860 when he was Deputy Post Master at Salem he obtained counting for pension up to 31st December 1855 at 716-8-27 as detailed in the accompanying revised affidavit of his services given before me by Soobbarao—

As regards the alteration of 1844 to 1846 in Mr. Hodges' Memo dated 12th April 1846 granting leave to Soobbarao, he states that he is not able to account for it; but it is not likely that it was made by him as he could not possibly have gained anything by so doing. He was moreover employed in 1866 as an English Accountant in the Coimbatore Collectorate.

With reference to the alteration of the date in Certificate N^o 8, it is observed that Captain Gunning who granted it left Ootacamund on the 1st January 1844 (the date of the certificate) for Travancore to join his

x Dated Ootacamund 1st January 1844

his appointment as Officer Commanding the 1st Brigade. As he never returned to Potacamund and died at Rivandrum on the 13th October 1845, it is clear that the certificate could not have borne a later date, and it would not have been in the applicant's interest to have changed the date had it been earlier -

Copy of memorandum from ^{Shree, 1899} The Inspecting Postmaster 9th or Coimbatore Division dated 2nd August 1870.

"It appears by a certificate of Major Boddam, Postmaster of Coimbatore, dated 2nd January 1840, that Subba Rao had been employed as clerk at Coimbatore Post office previous to that date, but there is no record to show when he entered the Department.

By an Order of Dr. Baillie who succeeded Major Boddam as Postmaster dated 1st March 1841, Subba Rao was appointed as Head clerk at Coimbatore on a salary of Rs 35/- a month.

The records of the Coimbatore Post Office only show that Subba Rao was Head clerk from January 1842 to July 1845.

The records previous to 1842 and subsequent to July 1845 are wanting, but to the best of my recollection and belief, Subba Rao

By a statement of services of Deputy Postmasters and clerks in the Department prepared by the Inspecting Postmaster of Coimbatore Division in 1856, the total period of service of Subba Rao up to the 31st December 1855, was 17 years and 11 months.

By an Order of the Collector of Coimbatore dated 3rd January 1852, — Subba Rao was appointed as clerk at Coimbatore.

Coimbatore from the 1st January 1852. 47

The records of the Coimbatore office show that he was in that office from the 1st May 1856 to 26th August 1858. Salary 30 rupees. The records between 1851 and 1856 are wanting.

By an order of the Postmaster General dated 25th June 1858, Subba Rao was appointed Deputy Postmaster of Salem Salary 30 Rs, joined that office on the 11th October 1858 and continued there until 10th May 1860, when he tendered his resignation which was accepted by the Postmaster General on the 27th June 1860. No 1055.

Translation of a deposition given by Raghunathu of Gonnathoon.

Question. From what time up to what time did you remain at Ootacamund and what posts have you filled?

Answer. I was there from 1831 to the end of 1850, employed as Tappab. Overseer, Taluk Gonnastah, Frontier Layer Broastuff, and Village Gurnuv. I then resigned the Gurnuvship in favour of my brother, but used to frequent the hills afterwards.

Q. Do you know how long Soobha Rao late 2^d English Accountant in the Nagoor was employed on the Kilgherries and what appointments he filled?

A. In 1831, when Ootacamund was attached to the Malabar District, I and Soobha Rao were Joint Overseers, in which appointment we continued for 2 or 3 years. As it was abolished under the orders of the Post Master General, he was employed as a private clerk for 2 or 3 years under Mr. Ryan. Subsequently continuous service claimed is from 7th April 1838 to 12th April 1846 - years 8-0-6. Of this period of service, only from January 1842 to July 1845 is verified from the records of the Postal Department. One witness corroborates ^{the applicant's} statement that he was entertained in 1838 and two prove service from 1840. There are also three certificates dated September 1838, September 1841, January 1844, which show that Subba Row was then employed in the Ootacamund Post Office.

3. A break occurs of ^{six} months from 13th April to 12th October 1846. The applicant states that he obtained leave for two months; that, being ill, he applied for an extension which being refused by the Postmaster he appealed to the Postmaster General, who referred his petition to the Ootacamund Postmaster and and that, on his return, he was reinstated in his own appointment. He puts in a certificate granting leave for two months from 12th April 1846 in corroboration of this statement; but the date has been palpably altered from 12th April 1856 or 1858. Under what circumstances the leave may have been granted, the Government cannot conjecture; but as the certificate is put in as evidence to account for the break in 1846, the date is of importance. The Government decline to accept the certificate as worth anything. There is no record of the leave. The Government observe, further, that the applicant's statement that he was reinstated in his former post is scarcely reconcilable with the fact that on his return he held for some days the post of ^{Asst} Post Office Writer on Rs 50 and then, after suspension on a charge in which he was acquitted, 2^d Writer on Rs 30 which was less than his salary up to to April 1846. The Government think that the service up to April 1846 is proved but cannot accept the explanation given as to the break, which must be taken to be due either to dismissal, absence without leave, or resignation. In either case, the previous service will be forfeited, as there is a subsequent break by resignation.

There appears no reason to question the applicant's service from 7th March 1847 to 26th August 1858 - a period of 11-3-20 - suspension for 2 months in 1854, and two days spent in travelling from Ootacamund to Coimbatore to take up a new appointment being omitted. From the 26th August to 14th October 1858 there is another break which is held by the Account Department to amount to resignation and to vitiate the previous service.

The applicant's explanation is that on receipt of an order of transfer from Coimbatore to Salem, copy of which is before Government, he he applied for months leave for preparation and joining, that he was told he must join as soon as possible and would get no pay till he did so, and that he actually took 6 weeks. From the fact of his having been allowed to take up the appointment to which he was transferred, the Government infer that he was not held at the time to have resigned the service, and resolved to overlook this break.

5. From 11th October 1858 to 10th May 1860, Subhat Naru served as Dy. Post Master at Salem, and on the latter date resigned. After being out of employ for one month & twenty days, a period insufficient to vitiate his previous service, he was entertained in the Coimbatore Collector's Office and served there for 9 yrs 10 mo 7 days.

6. The Government observe that the following service service may be admitted for pension

7th March 1847 }
31st Decr 1851 } — 4 — 9 — 25

3rd January 1852 }
26th August 1858 } — 6 — 7 — 24

14th October 1858 }
10th May 1860 } — 1 — 7 — 0

1st July 1860 }
9th May 1870 } — 9 — 10 — 9

22 — 10 — 28

This period is sufficient to entitle ^{by applicant} him to a one-third pension of Rs 15 per mensem. The applicant is now 58 years of age and the Government are of opinion that it is unnecessary to call for a medical Certificate. The pension of Rs 15 per mensem is therefore sanctioned with effect from the 10th May 1870.
