To R. M. Rodwick,

Sir,
1. With reference to queries Nos 37 and 38 in your memo dated 12th ultimo, I have the honor to state that Gollapudi Rammantaram, who had been up to 29th October 1860 on the Tussur Permanent Establishment as Vernacular clerk on Rs 15, and on that date transferred to the Beswada Taluq and placed on the temporary establishment maintained there for the management of the resumed estate of Luggur.
2. He remained in the latter position till the end of October 1862, when the Honorable Mr. Pelly's scheme of establishments coming into operation, he became a member of the permanent establishment of the Taluq. For this reason, his name was not shown in the detailed lists for 1861 and 1862. In the G.O. communicated to the Collector with prospectus of the Commissioner of the Northern Circars 2094 dated 20th February 1853, the speedy commission of such temporary establishments as the above

TO,

The Accountant General,
Madras

SIR,

In reply to your docket N^o 3418 dated 23rd August 1871, I have the honor to refer you to the G. O. sanctioning the Honorable Mr. Pelly's new scale of Establishments. You will observe, from the concluding paragraph of the order, that the Taluk Establishments were not to have been immediately altered and adjusted in accordance with it but only gradually, as the new Police was brought into operation into each Taluk "the changes lately ordered in the dimensions and names of the Taluks being carried into effect at the same time". The new scale of establishments was therefore accordingly introduced into the Begwada Taluk on 1st November 1862. Gollapudi Hammamantari was previous to this, Mugundar of the Taluk N^o 17-8-2, but the post having, according to the new scale, been replaced by one of a higher denomination viz Christudas, with higher emolument attached to it, the individual in question was retained as the new Taluk Headquarantah N^o 20 per month, which sum was a little over his former salary.

2. I would, also, add for your information that the changes above noted as having taken place in the Begwada and 2 other Taluks on 1st November 1862 were duly reported to the Board of Revenue in this Office N^o 295 dated 27th idem agreeably to their Circular N^o 1982 of 28th April 1863. Copy of Board's Proceedings of 6 January 1863 N^o 20 recording the letter is enclosed.
