Proceedings of the Madras Government. Financial Department.
24th February 1868.

No. 88. Read the following Proceedings of the Government of India, Financial Department. From the Secretary to the Government of India, to the Acting Chief Secretary to the Government of Bombay; dated Fort William, 31st January 1868, No. 633.

Pensions and Gratuities.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, dated 30th December 1867, No. 1587, submitting the recommendation of the Government of Bombay, that under the existing rules of pensions to Uncovenanted Servants, service in acting appointments may be allowed to count towards pension.

2. The Governor General in Council observes, that as a person on a permanent establishment who may be appointed to act in another situation is entitled, by virtue of his substantive appointment, to count towards pension the period of employment in the acting situation, an alteration of rule is unnecessary for this class of servants. With regard again, to servants who may be appointed to act in offices higher than their own, at any time during the last five years of their service, it would, owing to the frequency of acting appointments, be exceedingly inconvenient to allow them to reckon their pension upon the higher allowances received during the period of acting employment, especially as the permanent holder also would compute his pension upon the substantive pay of the appointment.

3. But persons not permanently enrolled on any Government establishment, who act for absent Uncovenanted Servants in eligible grades, and others employed in ineligible grades, who may be appointed to act in eligible grades, may count for pension, the period of officiating service provided that they are subsequently confirmed, and that the absentees are not allowed to count towards pension the period of their absence, whether as regards allowances on retirement, or the period of qualifying service.

ORDERED, that a copy of the above letter be furnished to the several Secretariats, the several Local Governments (Government of Bombay excepted), the several Administrations, the Director General of the Post Office of India, the Mint Master, Calcutta, the Head Commissioner of Paper Currency, the Comptroller General of Accounts, the several Accountants General, and the several Deputy Accountants General in independent charge.

*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,

No. 32. Read the following letter from C. RUNGAYYA NAYUDU, Die Kanakkapillai of the Madras Mint, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 16th November 1869.

I beg most respectfully to submit the enclosed memorial (in triplicate) to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India, and humbly request that the same may be transmitted to its address at an early date.

To

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INDIA.

The humble Memorial of C. RUNGAYYA
NAYUDU.

RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH,

That petitioner had served in the Madras Mint for a period of fourteen years and ten months in the capacity of a Die Kanakkapillai.

2. That he was entertained in the year 1854 by Colonel J. T. Smith, the then Mint Master, in succession to his father who, through the infirmities of age, was obliged to resign.

3. That petitioner has now been thrown out of employ in consequence of the abolition of the Madras Mint.

4. That Colonel Carpendale, the present Mint Master, recommended petitioner to the local Government for a pension on account of his service of nearly (less two months) fifteen years; but that the local Government have admitted petitioner to only a gratuity of one year's pay.

5. That the Madras Government grounded their denial of a pension to petitioner on the assumption that the first one year and four months of his service in the Mint was of an acting nature, and, as such, not reckoning towards pension.

6. That this decision, so adverse to your petitioner, being based on an assumption which is not supported by the facts of the case, he begs most respectfully to lay the following circumstances for the consideration of your Grace.

7. That it had always been customary with Colonel Smith, the late Mint Master, never to entertain an artizan in the Mint primarily in other than a probationary character. When his father had retired your petitioner was taken in his place in which he remained for one year and four months when he was, along with others, confirmed by Colonel Smith prior to that officer's departure to take charge of the Calcutta Mint. That it was always understood that such confirmation had effect from the date of entertainment. Acting as your petitioner was in a full vacancy, and receiving the full salary of the same, his confirmation in that office, according to existing rule, must be held to apply to the period of one year and four months in question, inasmuch as the rule distinctly prescribes that, when a person has been acting in a full vacancy and is subsequently confirmed in it, he is to be regarded, for the purposes of his pension, as a permanent holder of the office from the very first. That if Colonel Smith did not, when confirming petitioner and others in their appointments, say in so many words "with retrospective effect," yet that such was his intention is unquestionable; but as the Madras Government have apparently based their order on this omission, your petitioner submits that it is hard justice that, for a mere accident like this, he should be deprived of his pension, especially when the principle of retrospective confirmation, in the spirit of the intention contended for by petitioner, is so distinctly declared in the rule above quoted. Moreover, in the light of such a rule, the natural interpretation to be placed on the confirmation of Colonel Smith of artizans in the Mint after a period of probation is that, satisfied of their fitness for their work, he permanently employed them from the date of their entertainment just as if they had been engaged on such an understanding from the first; since, in the converse case, any person who, after a trial of one or even two years, had shown himself to be deficient would have been sent adrift without any compensation for his service beyond his mere wages for the time he was employed.

*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,

8. That, in recommending your petitioner to the Madras Government, Colonel Carpendale asserted the foregoing facts, and himself having had no doubt as to the permanent nature of your petitioner's service, recommended him for a pension on the ground that he only wanted two months to complete fifteen years.

9. That under these circumstances, and seeing that he had but two months to complete his service of fifteen years for a pension, but which he was prevented doing by an act of the Government alone, making a reduction, petitioner earnestly trusts that your Grace will be compassionately pleased to over-rule the decision of the Madras Government, and, in lieu of the gratuity which has been passed to him, authorize the grant to him of a pension. The pension to which he will be entitled is the small sum of Rupees 5, but, however small, it will be a sure support to him in these his declining days. His sudden deprivation of employment has involved your humble petitioner in great distress; and as the Government have always shown a generous disposition towards their servants who are thrown out of employ by a reduction of establishment, your petitioner prays that he may be made the recipient of the bounty of the Government in the grant of the small pension for which he nearly served. And he will ever pray.

Your most obedient and humble servant,

No. 34. To the Secretary to the Government of India, dated Fort Saint George, 7th January 1870, No. 21.

I am directed to forward, for transmission to the Secretary of State for India, the accompanying memorial from C. Rungayya Nayudu, late a Kanakapillai or Accountant in the Madras Mint, appealing against the refusal of this Government to admit him to pension.

2. The applicant's service is shown in the margin. This Government refused to admit the period passed as Acting Kanakapillai, during which the applicant had no permanent post, as he was not confirmed in his office with retrospective effect. He now appeals on the ground that during the sixteen months, he acted on probation. If this period had been included, the deficiency of two months in his whole service, would probably have been overlooked, and a pension assigned to him.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
14th May 1870.

No. 9. Read the following letter from G. H. M. BATTEN, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Fort William, 9th February 1870, No. 981 :—

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 21, dated 7th January 1870, forwarding, for transmission to the Secretary of State for India, a memorial from C. Rungayya Nayadu, late a Kannakapillai in the Madras Mint, appealing against the refusal of the Government of Madras to admit him to pension.

2. It is observed that the Government of Madras has disallowed, in the computation of service for pension, a period of one year and four months, viz., from 1st January 1854 to 30th April 1855, during which C. Rungayya Nayadu was employed in an acting capacity. But I am to point out that as the man was throughout that time employed in an appointment which was fully vacant drawing the entire pay of the office, and was subsequently confirmed in it, he is, in accordance with the principle laid down in the orders of this Department, No. 633, dated 31st January 1863, entitled to the benefit of the period in question towards pension. With this addition C. Rungayya Nayadu's service yet falls short of the minimum period (fifteen years) required to qualify for pension by two months, and I am directed to request that you will be good enough to inform this Department whether the Government of Madras would desire that this slight deficiency in the title to pension should be overlooked, and an allowance of one-third of pay granted to the man, as a special case.

No. 10. ORDER THEREON, 14th May 1870, No. 195.

Ordered to be communicated to the Accountant-General, whose attention will be drawn to paragraph 2 of Mr. Under Secretary Batten's letter.

PENSIONS AND GRATUITIES.

The 17th November 1870.

No. 3043.—RESOLUTION.—The Governor-General in Council observes that the operation of the Uncovenanted Service Pension Rules is restricted to servants employed on permanent establishments. It is, however, within the meaning of these rules that an Uncovenanted Servant may count towards pension any period of employment on an extra or temporary establishment, provided the establishment in which he may have served is eventually made permanent. It must not be understood from this that a servant is permitted to count service upon a temporary establishment merely by reason of his being transferred thence to another and a permanent establishment.
