Civil Court

Gilliah Calicut.

This is to certify that George Schmidt served in this Court as an Acting English Writer from 10th August 1844 to 15th November 1847 receiving pay from 10² to 24² Rupees, but that he has lost his situation in consequence of a letter from the Civil Auditor who objected to two persons being appointed to one situation.

He writes a quick hand, is attentive to his duties and knows how the several periodical reports are to be prepared.

Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 21st ultimo, I have the honor to inform you that from 15th September 1856 to 4th January 1857, the applicant J. G. Schmidt acted on full pay in the appointment of a writer on Rupees 24^½ vacant at the time and that from 5th January 1857 he similarly acted in the appointment of a writer on Rupees 28, the permanent incumbent of which had been suspended, and resumed his duties on the 20th. This accounts for the applicants apparent degradation on the 20th from Rupees 28 to 24^½.

To,

Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to bring to your notice that the business of this Court being very heavy I have been obliged, in order to enable me to conduct it with any thing like efficiency, to appoint two individuals to one situation both in the Writers and Native establishment.

As however I entertain doubts whether such is not opposed to the orders of Government as conveyed in the Circular letter from your Office under date 28. July 1846, I shall feel extremely obliged if you will favor me with your opinion on the subject, so that I may lose no time in rectifying the error, if thus regarded by you.
