Sir,

Reference your Memo dated 27th April 1870, returning papers connected with a case of gratuity of Pargachary late Additional Computer of No. 1 Revenue Survey for want of certain information

I have the honor to state that the Superintendent of Revenue Survey directed the reduction of the Establishment in order to reduce expenditure.

1. The services of several men were dispensed with temporarily.
2. The services of several men were dispensed with temporarily.
3. Additional Computer Pargachary appeared so feeble and worn out that I did not think myself justified in holding out to him any hope of permanent employment.

I therefore entered against his name in the U.C.S. Register the remark "services dispensed with in consequence of being unfit for"

For the Surveyor.

for further service"

4. I sent him to the Zilloch Surgeon for examination. As the Surgeon had not previously had him under his care, he delayed granting his certificate, till he had an opportunity of observing him.

5. Had not Pargachary been so completely worn out, I should have re-entertained him at the close of his official year.

6. The Memo, dated 22nd April, with the two enclosures is herewith returned.

I have the honor to beg.
