Sir,

In reply to your letter N^o 617 dated 9th ultimo, I have the honor to inform you that there is no order or record to be found in the Cotacambund Post-office regarding the suspension of Subbarao, the Records prior to 1852 having been sold.

To the best of my recollection — Subbarao was acquitted of the charge made against him by the Runners and restored to his appointment.

I have the honor to be
Sir,

your most obt. Servant.

Sir, In transferring the charge of the Post Office Department at this place I feel myself called upon to bring to your favorable notice, the zeal and general good Conduct of the Subordinate Establishment, particularly of the Head Writer Lockman during the time I have been in charge.

From the inadequacy of the Establishment to meet the daily increasing extent of duty imposed on it as well as from the description of Residents, with whom he is brought to contact, his task has been one of no ordinary difficulty to perform his duty as Servant of Government, and at the same time meet the conflicting demands of the public, with temper & civility and I have great pleasure in stating that in general he has succeeded most satisfactorily my hope, that the promise of an out in your letter of the 23rd February

Memorandum

It appears by a Certificate

of Major Roddam, Postmaster of Oats, 11 7/2 Aug 1840 that Loobarow has been employed as Clerk at Fortacommod Post Office previous to that date, but there is no record to show when he entered the Department.

2. By an order of Mr. Mackie who succeeded Major Roddam as Postmaster of March 1841, Loobarow was appointed as Clerk at Oats on a salary of $35 a month.

3. The records of the Oats Post Office only show that Loobarow was Head Clerk from January 1842 to July 1845.

✓ 4. The records previous to 1842 and subsequent to July 1845 are wanting, but to the best of my recollection I believe Loobarow continued at Fortacommod until Dec 1845.

5. By a statement of services of Mr.
Postmaster & Clerks in the Department, prepared by the Ship Postmaster Oats Div in 1856, the total period of service of Loobarow is up to

to the 31 Decr 55 was 17 years & 11 months

6 By an Order of the Collector of Comin-batore of 3rd Jan, 52 Lookbaroo was appointed as clerk at Cominbatore from the 1st Jan, 52

7 The records of the Cominbatore office show that he was in that office from the 1st May, 1856 to 26 August 1858. salary 30 Rupees

8 The records between 1857 & 1858 are wanting

9 By an order of the Postmaster General dated 25 June 58, Lookbaroo was appointed Deputy Postmaster of a Salem salary 30 Rs, joined that office on the 11 October, 1858 & continued there until 10 May, 1860. when he tendered his resignation which was accepted by the Post Master Genl on the 27th June 60 1860.
