Sir,

In reply to Government order No. 543 dated 17th November 1871, I have the honor to state that I have not been able to obtain any further information from the Jail Records, with reference to the previous Service of late Constable Chodakum Ranganayakuloo -

The Certificate given him by the Officer then in charge of the Jail on his discharge from the establishment, was obtained from his widow which is herewith submitted.

I have further to inform that the man died here about a fortnight ago -

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most Obedt. Servt.

Read also the following letter from the Inspector General of Police, dated 9th January 1872 No. 55.

Order thereon 12th March 1872 No. 107.

It would appear from the certificate signed by the Sessions Judge in 1861 produced by the widow of Chodakam Runganayakulu that the latter served for the period of 20 years as an extra jail peon prior to his entering the police and that he was discharged from the jail establishment owing to the transfer to the Police of the duties performed by him. The Government have on

on a former[x] occasion allowed the service of extra jail guards to count as permanent service and Chodatkam Ranganayakulu was therefore eligible for an invalid pension; but as he is now deceased and the arrears of the invalid pension up to the date of his demise would not equal the gratuity to which he is entitled, if his service on the jail establishment be not allowed to count; the Governor in Council resolves to sanction the disbursement to his widow of the gratuity of Rupees (Co) Sixty to which he was eligible for his service of 10 years and 7 days in the Police.
