Extract from the Diary of the Sub Court of Calicut dated 15th February 1861.

Keyalat Amboo Menon having taken the benefit of the Insolvent Act i.e. having been discharged from arrest under the provisions of Sections 273 & 274 Act VIII of 1859 is suspended from employ pending enquiry under Government Proceedings No. 2539 - 28th October 1859.

Proceedings of the Madras Government

Read the following letter from G. R. Sharpe Esqr. Officiating Sub Judge of Calicut, to T. Pycroft Esqr. Chief Secretary to Government, in the Judicial Department, Fort Saint George, dated 27th February 1861 No. 37.

Keyalat Amboo Menon, the Acting Head Gomastah on the Establishment of this Court having been discharged on oath from arrest under the provisions of Sections 273 & 274 of Act VIII of 1859, I deemed it my duty to suspend

him

him from employ pending enquiry under Government Proceedings, No. 2539, dated 28th October 1859.

2. I have now the honor to state that upon inquiry, I find that the said Gomastah's mother, the wife of the 1st Sirdar of the late Nair Battalion in Malabar, enjoyed a pension from Government of Rs 21, which with his own pay of Rs 11½ enabled the family to maintain themselves in Comparative ease and comfort.

On the death of the mother, however, the family have had no other income than the slender pay of the Gomastah. To this he attributes his present embarrassed circumstances, which is moreover proved to be the case by the Statements of my Sheristedar and Jewabnevees, which I see no reason to doubt.

3. The Gomastah has hitherto borne an unexceptionable character, possesses good testimonials from the several Gentlemen under whom he served, and Mr Holloway remarks in the Register Book of the Uncovenanted Servants of this Court that he is "a very respectable and most inoffensive man." Considering that the amount of his liabilities are but small and that the incurring thereof may well be attributed to his misfortune rather than to his fault, considering also that he has borne a good character in the public service and trusting that his suspension will be a sufficient warning to him, I have the honor to recommend that Government will issue orders that he may be permitted to resume his duties.

4. This report may perhaps not be drawn up in the regular form, for I regret to say that the Proceedings in the Public Department, dated 10th August 1857 No. 1109, are not to be found on the records of this Court.

Order thereon, 9th March 1861 No. 321.

Under the circumstances explained by the Sub Judge, the Government will permit Koyalat Amboo Menon to resume the duties of the office from which he had been suspended
