Explanation of delay

The services of Venkut Rao were dispensed with on the 14th June 1871 but a correct service List and application for Gratuity on his behalf were only received in this office on the 14th September 1871, an application previously received having had to be returned for certain explanation. A reference to the Commissioner of the Neilgherries had to be made relative to applicants services in that District. The services had also to be verified in this office. This explains the delay in the submission of this application.
