delay in forwarding the application till I returned to head quarters at Masulipatam and until the informa tion called for from the Talugs regarding applicants'

SIR,

In reply to your Assistant's Memo of 30th October 1871 I have the honor to state that,

Item No. 37- The particulars of leave noticed in the Memo have now been correctly given. Their omission in the original register is due to oversight.

Item No. 38- Applicant served in "estates" from 24th Octob. 1856 to 31st October 1862. Hence servants on such establishments were not shown in the annual turns, excepted in 1858, in which year his name appears under "Bezwada" Extra.

With reference to the remark "why this service of 6 years and 8 days was included in eligible service when similar service at the commencement was excluded," I have the honor to state that the service included was of the nature described in paras 2 and 3 of Government Order No. 711 dated 17th December 1870 - Pension Department which, that excluded was not, having been created as occasion arose such as attachment of Zemindaris for arrears Peishcush (tribute) &c &c

The same Government Order applies to his service in 1857.

When the Revenue Establishment was revised on 1st November 1862 on the Honorable C. Pelly's Scale, applicant was thrown out of employ: but the Mylaveram Estate having just been brought under attachment (Judicial) he was immediately appointed as Deputy Tahsildar in the estate & continued in it till 22nd June 1864; when he was again taken on the permanent establishments of the District. The intervening period of 1 year 7 months 22 days has therefore been included in eligible service under paras
