Memo:

Mr. Cabral was suspended by the Supg Engineer on the 4th March on charges submitted by the Manager for disobedience of orders and insolence - Mr. Cabral was called upon for his explanation which was unsatisfactory, the Supg Engineer then determined as Mr. Cabral's Conduct for insolence and insubordination had before been brought to notice by a former Manager, that he should remain under suspension until the Supg Engineer should personally be able to inquire into the matter, ~~this~~ the Supg Engineer has done and the evidence taken is all against him, Mr. Cabral labours under the impression that he is the only truthful man in the Office; the Supg Engineer thinks differently -

Mr. Cabral received a distinct order to copy a certain Cash Estimate urgently required, This he admits he did not do until called upon a second time. The Supg Engineer is quite satisfied that Mr. Cabral's conduct was most irritating and insolent to the Manager - and Mr. Cabral deserves far heavier punishment than the Supg Engineer determines to inflict.

Taking into consideration Mr. Cabral's large family and the near approach to the time his services must be dispensed with under notification published in the Fort

Fort Saint George Gazette of 6th April 1869, Page No 493, the Supg Engineer fines
Mr Cabral Rupees 5 and Mr Cabral will lose his pay during the time he was under suspension.
