Civil & Sepsim Court
Fellingery 1st March 1872

R. A. M.

Pres
Ag. Civil & Sepsim Judge.

No. 74.
From,

Tellicherry 1st March 1872

J. W. Reid Esqre
Ag. Civil & Session Judge of Tellicherry.

To,

D. F. Carmichael Esqre
Ag. Secretary to Government
Fort St. George
Madras.

Sir,

In continuation of my letter dated the 10th Ultimo No. 10 I have the honor to forward for the indulgent consideration of Government a Statement of the Services of Rama Kumarath Rama Menon, late 2nd Gumastah in the Pyanad Munsiffs' Court who was compelled to retire from the service under the 55 years' order.

This officer entered the service as 5th Gumastah of the Inuvynad Munsifs' Court on 28th January 1835. on a salary of Rs. 6, on 3rd July 1840 he was promoted as 4th Gumastah in Kerdetanad Court on a salary of Rs. 7. Rising to the post of 3rd Gumastah in Inuvynad Munsifs' Court on a salary of Rs. 10 on the 18th January 1868 he held it and a similarly paid post of 2nd Gumastah in Enclosure — 1.

See a letter from the Ag. Civil & Session Judge of Tellicherry dated 1st March 1872, No. 74.

in the same Court till the 2nd August 1866 when he was, on abolition, of the Travnad Munsifi Court appointed 2nd Gumastah in the Pyanad Munsifi Court on a salary of Rs. 14. The last salary is the only one entitling him under the rules a pension; but as in the case of those mentioned in my letter of the above date the rest of his service was in posts in which he performed duties similar to those which he performed while drawing more than Rs. 10; I have the honor to make a similar recommendation vizt. that he receive a pension of half of his ^{average} pay for last 5 years.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant.
