* The applicant was certified as unfit for further service on the 18th October 1870 but allowed to continue drawing half pay as absent on sick certificate up to 31st March 1871. This was perhaps owing to the permanent Principal Sedarim being himself absent on leave. His proposed pension is the same as his half pay & the date from which it is to commence has been entered as 1st April 1871. If the full amount of pension proposed be not granted an adjustment will have to be made. The Civil Court had nothing to do with the case till after the removal of the P.S.A's Court.
